author appearance guide

Create a Fabulous Author Visit with Penguin Young Readers Group!

Thank you for your interest in one of our authors/illustrators. Please read the information in this pdf and submit your requests online at <http://us.penguin.com/authorvisits>

Due to the high volume of requests we receive each day, please do not expect a response to your request for at least two to three weeks. We appreciate your patience.

Steps to planning a successful author visit:

1. Start planning as far in advance as possible, at least six months—but up to two years!

2. Create a detailed outline/schedule for the visit.

- * Think about the ideal date, time, and location.
- * Define the audience—who are they? What ages (students, teachers, librarians)?
- * How many sessions would you like the author to do?
- * What will the author do at each session? Teach classes? Conduct workshops? Give presentations? Will he/she be on a panel with other speakers?
- * How long is each session?
- * What is your budget? Generally, hosting organizations will pay the author's honorarium, transportation, hotel and meal costs.
- * You are required to host a book signing so you must consider: a) the number of books you need to order, b) when the signing will take place, and c) how you will obtain books for the signing.

Once you have an outline, it's time to select an author!

3. Select an author. You can find an author by last name or geographic area. You will find information about author/illustrators, fees, and presentation descriptions. Select several authors. Many authors and illustrators have extremely tight schedules, so your first choice might not be available. Remember to consider local talent, first time authors/illustrators, mid-list, or backlist authors/illustrators.

4. In order for us to process your request we will need you to complete the request form which will be emailed to us. It is important to note that scheduling an author visit is a very lengthy process. The more specific information the organization provides, the easier it is for the publisher to contact the author/illustrator and start the process. Due to the high volume of requests we receive each day, please do not expect a response to your request for at least two to three weeks. We appreciate your patience.

5. Once the author has agreed, you will receive a confirmation letter, detailed book ordering instructions, and any available promotional materials. We will also include direct contact information for the author/illustrator. Please note that the organization is responsible for the following:

*Making the author's travel arrangements and hotel accommodations (if necessary), and planning meals during the visit. We suggest that you do this as far in advance as possible, once you've received the confirmation letter from the publisher. Get in touch with the author and find out what his/her preferences are for travel, if he/she would like a smoking or non-smoking hotel room, if the author has any medical or dietary restrictions.

*Planning the schedule for the appearance. If the author is staying the entire day to do multiple presentations, make an outline of day's schedule—be sure to schedule time for breaks! Discuss with the author lunch plans for the day of the appearance. Find out if the author would like to eat with children in the cafeteria, go out to lunch with members of the faculty and/or PTA, or have some time alone to unwind and get ready for the afternoon. It's also important to keep the visit running on schedule. Have volunteers escort the author to the next presentation and facilitate the book signings. Here is a sample schedule to use as a guide for your author visit:

8:30-9:00

Author breakfast
Faculty and PTA welcome the author

9:15-10:00

Author presents for first graders in the library

10:00-10:20

Question and answer session

10:30-11:00

School administration and local press greet author in gymnasium

(NOTE If you wish to invite the press to your author visit, make sure you ask for the author's consent in advance)

11:15-12:15

Author presents for second grade in the auditorium

12:15-12:35

Question and answer session

12:45-1:45

Author's luncheon sponsored by the PTA

2:00-3:00

Book signing party in the cafeteria

3:15-3:30

Author sees projects by the students based on the author's work

3:40-4:00

Coffee and cookies and an informal chat between the author and the faculty

*Meeting the author's needs for his or her presentation. It could range from a slide projector, podium, or hand-held microphone, to a comfortable chair and a glass of water!

6. Order books! You should do this well in advance—at least ten weeks before the visit. Click here for book ordering information. There is a title list to accompany each author's appearance description on the website. You can also request one from the author appearance coordinator. We suggest that that you include the author's most recent book in your book order, since the author will most likely talk about it during presentations.

7. Get EXCITED and ORGANIZED for the event. Here are some great ways to get ready:

*Involve the faculty, staff, PTA, and the community: Form a hospitality committee (don't forget, you have to pick up and drop off the author at the airport, train station, etc. as well as chaperone him/her during the event). Make the author feel welcome!

Note: Whatever plans you make for the author, make sure he/she knows about them before the visit.

*Make flyers and posters to hang up and distribute at PTA and School Board Meetings.

*Ask the school librarian to make a display of the author's books.

*Read and discuss some of the books with the students before the author's arrival. Try to obtain biographical information about the author either from the publisher or by looking online so students can become familiar with the author. Do creative writing and illustrating projects and display them for the author when he/she comes.

*Request an honorarium check in plenty of time for the event. The author should receive payment at the end of the visit, unless otherwise discussed.

how to order books

for a Penguin School or Library Author Appearance

THERE ARE THREE WAYS TO ORDER BOOKS FOR AN AUTHOR VISIT:

ORDER THROUGH A LOCAL BOOKSTORE. If you decide to do this, be sure to contact the bookstore manager to discuss the store discount policy. Your book order should be placed at least ten weeks in advance.

ORDER THROUGH A WHOLESALER. Your school or library probably orders from a wholesaler on a regular basis. Again, please contact a wholesaler at least ten weeks in advance. Keep in mind that you may need to open an account at either a bookstore or a wholesaler, and should allow time for this as well.

ORDER DIRECTLY THROUGH PENGUIN GROUP (USA) INC. Books are not supplied on consignment; they are sold to you at a 40% discount. Penguin Group (USA) Inc. pays the cost of shipping your order, but you must pay the return postage for any unsold books. All direct book orders must be placed through order processing. Please call 1-866-206-5865 to place your order. The author appearance coordinator cannot place or track your order. Directions for ordering directly are below.

HOW TO ORDER BOOKS THROUGH PENGUIN GROUP (USA) INC:

1. Determine what titles you would like to order. Books are sometimes out of stock or out of print, and prices may change. To speed up the process, please have all titles and ISBN numbers (book numbers) ready before you call Order Processing.

2. Place your order:

ORGANIZATIONS WITH A PENGUIN GROUP (USA) INC. ACCOUNT: We strongly encourage you to place your book order at least 6-8 weeks in advance. Call Order Processing at 1-866-206-5865. They will be able to check availability of titles for you. Please indicate that the order is for an author appearance and the date the books are needed.

ORGANIZATIONS WITHOUT AN ACCOUNT: We strongly encourage you to place your book order at least 6-8 weeks in advance. Please call Order Processing at 1-866-206-5865 to set up an account. If you do not have an account with Penguin Group (USA) Inc., we must also receive your order in writing. Send a letter on your school or organization's letterhead, or a purchase order to Order Processing at: Penguin Group (USA) Inc., 405 Murray Hill Pkwy, East Rutherford, NJ 07073 or via fax attention Author Appearance Orders at 201-256-0013. Please indicate that the order is for an author appearance and the date the books are needed.

3. If books have not arrived ten working days before your need-by date, call Order Processing at 1-866-206-5865. Be sure to have your purchase order or the date of your order available.

4. Return unsold books. Unsold books are returnable provided they are in good condition; signed books are returnable provided they are not dated or personalized. Books should be sent with a packing slip indicating your organization's name and account number, and must be returned within 30 days of receipt. If you return books via the U. S. Postal Service, please insure them so that you have a receipt. Send to: Penguin Group (USA) Inc., 1 Grosset Drive, Kirkwood, NY 13795. Because of delays in paperwork, credit memos and corrected invoices can take some time. It is also possible that you will receive statements that do not reflect returns or payments due to paperwork delays. If you would like to speed the process, figure the correct amount you feel you owe and pay your invoice based on those figures. If you have been given an incorrect discount, please contact Customer Service at 800-631-8571.
