Maira Kalman
AND THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS
Energized by the 2008 elections, Kalman traveled to Washington, D.C., to investigate the workings of American democracy and transformed her discoveries into an idiosyncratic vision of history and politics. “An impromptu interpretive dance about our country, executed in fat, frolicky color, unprissy brushstroke, a smattering of pleasantly pedestrian photographs, and perfectly rambunctious penmanship.”—New York Times Book Review.
Penguin • 480 pp. • 978-0-14-312203-6 • $20.00

THE PRINCIPLES OF UNCERTAINTY
Part personal narrative, part documentary, part travelogue, part chapbook, and all Kalman, these brilliant, whimsical paintings, ideas, and images—which initially appear random—form an inner monologue that reveals Kalman’s highly personal worldview.
Penguin • 480 pp. • 978-0-14-311646-2 • $22.00

Ken Kesey
KESEY’S JAIL JOURNAL
Introduction by Ed McClanahan
“Lushly illustrated...Kesey drew, collaged and wrote a running narrative of his experiences in several notebooks...While often silly and funny, Kesey also poignantly and often tragically depicts issues such as racial tension, mental instability, and the eternal clash between order and freedom.”—Publishers Weekly.
Viking • 144 pp. • 978-0-670-87693-8 • $34.95

Ron McLarty
ART IN AMERICA
McLarty’s latest unforgettable protagonist is failed writer Steven Kearney, who is hired by the Creedemore Historical Society to write a play about the rural Southern Colorado town. “A rollicking, robust, Rabelaisian tale of common sense and neighborliness run amok.”—Houston Chronicle.
Penguin • 384 pp. • 978-0-14-311554-0 • $16.00

Bárbara Mujica
FRIDA
Told in the voice of Frida’s sister, this brilliantly vivid work of historical fiction tells an intense tale of sibling rivalry, as both sisters vie for Diego Rivera’s affection. “Vivid…Burns with dramatic urgency.”—The New York Times Book Review.

Ali Smith
ARTFUL
Smith melds fiction and essay into a magical hybrid form that becomes a song of praise for the power of stories in our lives, a hypnotic dialogue between art and storytelling, and a meditation on love, grief, memory, and revitalization. “These brief, acrobatic lectures...perform spectacular feats of criticism. Each is as playful as it is powerful, as buoyant as it is brilliant.”—NPR.

Penguin Group (USA) offers course adoption assistance as near as your computer or phone! Over the past few years, the College Faculty Information Service has grown to cover a wide range of fine titles from all Penguin Group (USA) imprints in a continuing effort to offer personalized service to professors and to supplement and enhance information provided by our college reps in the field. INTERESTED? Look through this catalog and note the outstanding books at low prices that have made Penguin Group (USA) the first choice of educators. Then fill out the questionnaire and send it to us. The questionnaire is also available on our website: http://us.penguingroup.com/academic

YES, I am an assistant, associate, adjunct, or full professor in a U.S. university, college, or institution, and want to take part in PENGUIN GROUP’s College Faculty Information Service as described in this catalog. Also, I participate in decision making and agree that the purpose of requesting any examination copies will be to consider them for adoption in the courses I teach.
