NEW TITLES IN AMERICAN HISTORY

STEPHEN KANTROWITZ
More Than Freedom
Fighting for Black Citizenship in a White Republic, 1820–1860
THE PENGUIN HISTORY OF AMERICAN LIFE SERIES
A major new narrative account of the long struggle of Freedom activists—black and white, male and female—to establish African Americans as free citizens, from the end of slavery to the era of Reconstruction.

STEVEN G. NORMAN
Lights and Shadows: The Story of the Emancipation Proclamation
A Documentary History of Reconstruction
A Just and Lasting Peace
JOHN DAVID SMITH,
who all experienced the profound effects of the American Civil War. An anthology of primary documents and images captures the wide spectrum of individuals who defined and defended American Indian political identity.

With historical sources ranging from public documents, newspaper articles, and personal letters to diaries, family papers, and oral histories, The Amistad Africans vividly illustrates how people of African descent—then and now—have often been pushed to the side. "—The Philadelphia Tribune

"The great strength of this work—aside from Rediker's vivid style as a writer and meticulous research—is that he brings the Amistad Africans back to center stage where they have often been pushed to the side. "—The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette

FREDERICK HOXIE
This Indian Country
American Indian Activists and the Place They Made
A history of political activism told through the inspiring stories of the men and women who fought for—and won—their freedom. "—The Philadelphia Tribune

"A powerful, undeniable chronicle of civilized resistance. "—The New Yorker

DUSAN BRANKOVIC
How "Dancing in the Street" Became the Anthem for a Changing America
Ready For a Brand New Beat
THOMAS DYJA
The Third Coast
When Chicago Built the American Dream
THOMAS DYJA
What the American Dream [The Third Coast] has on elegant, affecting, new novel is its rich detail. Specificity is at the heart of the book, and I had a hard time trying to envision "Chicago Renaissance, an ambitious history done in an enterprising style."—The Chicago Tribune

An epic portrait of a nation both galvanized by change and driven by conflict. "—The New York Times

"Freeberg's deft social history explores a remarkable period in America's cultural and economic development. By understanding the post-Edison world we can see how...the pioneers of light took place in an unusual setting, a period in which American invention was remarkably active and fertile. "—The Wall Street Journal

"Electric Light and the Invention of Modern America" is better than any historian ever has. "—Michael Kazin, Georgetown University

"Freeman has written a supremely intelligent narrative which traces the arc of America's economic growth, social and political conflicts, and recent decline since World War II. "—The New York Times

"An epic portrait of a nation both galvanized by change and driven by conflict. "—The New York Times
More Than Freedom
Fighting for Black Citizenship in a White Republic, 1829–1889
The Penguin History of American Life Series
Fighting for black citizenship in the wake of the Civil War, black and white, famous and obscure—to establish African Americans as free citizens, from abolitionism through the Civil War, Reconstruction, and its demise.

The Amistad Rebellion: An Atlantic Odyssey of Slavery and Freedom
Penguin Press Hardcover

“The great strength of this work—aside from Rediker’s vivid style as a writer and meticulous research—is that he brings the Amistad Africans back to center stage where they have often been pushed to the side.”—Pittsburgh Post-Gazette

“The Amistad Rebellion is a powerful, undeniable chronicle of civilized resistance.”—Cleveland Plain Dealer

The Amistad Rebellion: An Atlantic Odyssey of Slavery and Freedom (Penguin Press hardcover) by Marcus Rediker

American Indian Activists and the Place They Made
Penguin Paperbacks

“A vivid social history....It underscores the point that the work of Edison and other pioneers of light took place in an unusual setting, a period in which American invention was remarkably active and fertile.”—The New Yorker

Electric Light and the Invention of Modern America
Penguin Press Hardcover

“Freeman has written a supremely intelligent narrative which traces the arc of America’s democratic revolution at home 1945–2000.”—The New York Times Book Review

The Third Coast: Chicago, Light and the Invention of Modern America
Penguin Press Hardcover

“Freeberg’s deft social history explores a remarkable period in America’s cultural and economic development. By understanding the post-Edison world we can see how...the commerce of illumination extinguished urban gloom.”—The New York Times Book Review

The Age of Edison: Detroit’s Light and the Invention of Modern America
Penguin Press Hardcover

“The story of the civil rights movement’s genesis, a tumultuous period of American politics, is widely interpreted as a call to action.”—Pittsburgh Post-Gazette

Ready For a Brand New Beat: How “Dancing in the Street” Became the Anthem for a Changing America
Riverhead Hardcover

“A vivid, fascinating, surprising, altogether masterful chronicle of this quintessentially American city’s mid-century cultural heyday.”—Kurt Andersen, author of Children of Immigrants

The Third Coast: Chicago, Light and the Invention of Modern America
Penguin Press Hardcover

(paperback)

The Amistad Rebellion: An Atlantic Odyssey of Slavery and Freedom
Penguin Press Hardcover

How “Dancing in the Street” Became the Anthem for a Changing America
Riverhead Hardcover

(paperback)

Ready For a Brand New Beat: How “Dancing in the Street” Became the Anthem for a Changing America
Riverhead Hardcover

(paperback)

Fighting for Black Citizenship in a White Republic, 1829–1889
The Penguin History of American Life Series
Fighting for black citizenship in the wake of the Civil War, black and white, famous and obscure—to establish African Americans as free citizens, from abolitionism through the Civil War, Reconstruction, and its demise.

The Amistad Rebellion: An Atlantic Odyssey of Slavery and Freedom
Penguin Press Hardcover

“The great strength of this work—aside from Rediker’s vivid style as a writer and meticulous research—is that he brings the Amistad Africans back to center stage where they have often been pushed to the side.”—Pittsburgh Post-Gazette

“The Amistad Rebellion is a powerful, undeniable chronicle of civilized resistance.”—Cleveland Plain Dealer

The Amistad Rebellion: An Atlantic Odyssey of Slavery and Freedom (Penguin Press hardcover) by Marcus Rediker

American Indian Activists and the Place They Made
Penguin Paperbacks

“A vivid social history....It underscores the point that the work of Edison and other pioneers of light took place in an unusual setting, a period in which American invention was remarkably active and fertile.”—The New Yorker

Electric Light and the Invention of Modern America
Penguin Press Hardcover

“Freeman has written a supremely intelligent narrative which traces the arc of America’s democratic revolution at home 1945–2000.”—The New York Times Book Review

The Third Coast: Chicago, Light and the Invention of Modern America
Penguin Press Hardcover

“Freeberg’s deft social history explores a remarkable period in America’s cultural and economic development. By understanding the post-Edison world we can see how...the commerce of illumination extinguished urban gloom.”—The New York Times Book Review

The Age of Edison: Detroit’s Light and the Invention of Modern America
Penguin Press Hardcover

“The story of the civil rights movement’s genesis, a tumultuous period of American politics, is widely interpreted as a call to action.”—Pittsburgh Post-Gazette

Ready For a Brand New Beat: How “Dancing in the Street” Became the Anthem for a Changing America
Riverhead Hardcover

“A vivid, fascinating, surprising, abslutely wonderful chronicle of this quintessentially American city’s mid-century cultural heyday.”—Kurt Andersen, author of Children of Immigrants

The Third Coast: Chicago, Light and the Invention of Modern America
Penguin Press Hardcover

(paperback)

The Amistad Rebellion: An Atlantic Odyssey of Slavery and Freedom
Penguin Press Hardcover

How “Dancing in the Street” Became the Anthem for a Changing America
Riverhead Hardcover

(paperback)

Ready For a Brand New Beat: How “Dancing in the Street” Became the Anthem for a Changing America
Riverhead Hardcover

(paperback)
NEW TITLES IN AMERICAN HISTORY

STEPHEN KANTROWITZ
More Than Freedom
Fighting for Black Citizenship in a White Republic, 1820–1880
THE PENGUIN HISTORY OF AMERICAN LIFE SERIES
A masterful narrative account of the long struggle of Freedom seekers—black and white—in America to achieve the promise of equal citizenship. "Offers...a new and clear history of the struggles over race and citizenship..."—David W. Blight, Yale University
PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 576 PP. • 978-0-14-312402-3 • $20.00

MARCUS REDIKER
The Amistad Rebellion
An Atlantic Odyssey of Slavery and Freedom
A history of political activism told through the inspiring stories of the men and women who fought for—and won—their freedom. "Vividly drawn...this stunning book honors the achievement of the captive Africans who fought for and won their freedom..."—The Philadelphia Inquirer
PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 384 PP. • 978-0-14-312398-9 • $13.00

FREDERICK HOXIE
This Indian Country
American Indian Activists and the Place They Made
A story of political struggle told through the many voices of the various individuals who shaped Indian activism in the 20th century. "A powerful, audacious chronicle of vibrant resistance..."—Chicago Tribune
PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 288 PP. • 978-0-14-312344-6 • $12.00

EILEEN and ROGER PANETTA, editors
On Shattered Ground: A Civil War Memoir, 1861–1865
A heart-rending memoir of war and politics, newspaper writing, and personal tragedy. "A vivid, fascinating, surprising, altogether masterful chronicle of this quintessentially American city's mid-century cultural heyday..."—Kurt Andersen, author of Century City
PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 400 PP. • 978-0-14-312444-3 • $13.00

JOHN DAVID SMITH, editor
A Just and Lasting Peace
A Documentary History of Reconstruction
"Offers a fresh and vivid narrative of Reconstruction..."—Chicago Tribune
SUITCASE CLASSICS PAPERBACK • 232 PP. • 978-0-14-312264-9 • $7.00

JOSHUA FREEMAN
American Empire
The War at the Great Fleet, The Democratic Revolution at Home 1905–2000
THE PENGUIN HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES SERIES
"In his new book, Freeman offers a panoramic and daringly original interpretation of American history. Freeman's deep understanding of the international context of American politics...is invaluable..."—The New York Times Book Review
PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 480 PP. • 978-0-14-312426-8 • $20.00

ERNST FREEBERG
American City: San Francisco
The Age of Edison
"An urban history...It celebrates the years that mark the end of the Industrial Revolution and the beginning of an American era of invention and innovation. Freeman has written a supremely intelligent narrative..."—The Wall Street Journal
PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 368 PP. • 978-1-4494-5948-4 • $17.95

THOMAS DYJA
The Third Coast
What the Chicagoans Dream
"The Third Coast has an elegant, unfolding, new genre...a journey through Chicago's cultural history..."—Chicago Tribune
PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 336 PP. • 978-0-14-312434-5 • $17.95

MARK KURLANSKY
Ready For a Brand New Beat
How Rock 'n' Roll Came to America, 1954–1959
"Kurlansky has...written the most thought-provoking and astute book ever written about American music..."—The Chicago Sun-Times
PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 240 PP. • 978-0-14-312261-8 • $12.00

MARK KURLANSKY
Ready For a Brand New Beat
How Rock 'n' Roll Came to America, 1954–1959
"Kurlansky has...written the most thought-provoking and astute book ever written about American music..."—The Chicago Sun-Times
PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 240 PP. • 978-0-14-312261-8 • $12.00

MARK KURLANSKY
Ready For a Brand New Beat
How Rock 'n' Roll Came to America, 1954–1959
"Kurlansky has...written the most thought-provoking and astute book ever written about American music..."—The Chicago Sun-Times
PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 240 PP. • 978-0-14-312261-8 • $12.00

MARK KURLANSKY
Ready For a Brand New Beat
How Rock 'n' Roll Came to America, 1954–1959
"Kurlansky has...written the most thought-provoking and astute book ever written about American music..."—The Chicago Sun-Times
PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 240 PP. • 978-0-14-312261-8 • $12.00
NEW TITLES IN AMERICAN HISTORY

JOHN M. BARRY

Roger Williams and the Creation of the American Soul
Church, Technology, and the Philosophy of Liberty

"...Barr’s... keen understanding of the history of [Buddhism]... is insightful..."—Library Journal

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 448 PP. • $21.00 • ISBN 978-0-14-312398-6 • 3/08

NATHANIEL PHILBRICK

Bunker Hill: A City, a Siege, a Revolution

"...Philbrick’s energetic account... shows how the British... shaped the American Revolution..."—Library Journal

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 416 PP. • $21.00 • ISBN 978-0-14-312399-3 • 3/08

KEVIN PHILLIPS

1775: A Good Year for Revolution

Historian Phillip suggests that the great events and confrontations of 1775 established a strong precedent for the ultimate victory of the American Revolution..."—Library Journal

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 576 PP. • $19.00 • ISBN 978-0-14-312280-7 • 3/14

Michael Fullilove

Rendezvous with Destiny

The remarkable untold story of Franklin D. Roosevelt and the five extraordinary men he recruited to lead the Allied war effort in Europe and Asia..."—Library Journal

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 704 PP. • $26.00 • ISBN 978-0-14-312284-5 • 3/14

Irish Way

JAMES R. BARR

The Irish Way: Becoming American in the Multi-Ethnic City

The PENGUIN HISTORY OF AMERICAN LIFE SERIES

"...This book offers a fascinating exploration of the Irish experience in the modern American city..."—Library Journal

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 656 PP. • $29.00 • ISBN 978-0-14-312285-2 • 3/14

MANNING MARABLE and GARRET FELBER, editors

The Portable Malcolm X Reader

The Portable Malcolm X Reader ranges from Malcolm's 1964 treatise, Malcolm X to Babies, to pieces never before published, including civil rights, police reports, and FBI files. The collection, as a whole, provides a comprehensive picture of the man, the voice, the movement, and the power of his ideas..."—Library Journal

PENGUIN CLASSICS HARDCOVER • 584 PP. • $29.95 • ISBN 978-0-14-312286-9 • 3/14

JUAN WILLIAMS

Eyes on the Prize

America’s Civil Rights, 1954–1965

"...A gripping account... describes the real מלכה, as we were winning World War II, and failures that led to serious problems in later years..."—Library Journal

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 688 PP. • $19.00 • ISBN 978-0-14-312300-2 • 3/08

TANNER COLBY

Some of My Best Friends Are Black

The Strange Story of Integration in America

"...A feisty, fearless, edgy book, blissfully bereft of academic jargon, propelled by the energy..."—Library Journal

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 304 PP. • $19.00 • ISBN 978-0-14-312281-2 • 3/14

James R. Barrett

The Founding Conservatives

How a Group of Unlikely Saints Saved the American Revolution

"...A remarkable and important book. The book will change the way we think about the American Founding..."—Library Journal

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 384 PP. • $19.00 • ISBN 978-0-14-312282-9 • 3/14

John M. Barry

The General

American Military Command from World War I to Today

"...Barry’s... analysis of American military command from World War I to the Iraq war... is excellent..."—Library Journal

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 336 PP. • $19.00 • ISBN 978-0-14-312283-6 • 3/14

David Nasaw

The Patriarch: The Life and Times of Joseph P. Kennedy

Drawing on never-before-published materials from archives on three continents, David Nasaw’s biography of the patriarch offers the reader compellingly..."—Library Journal

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 560 PP. • $19.00 • ISBN 978-0-14-312284-3 • 3/14

Eric Schlosser

Nuclear Weapons, the Dominican Affair, and the Hazards of Safety

"...Terrorist attacks... can... result in a nuclear accident..."—Library Journal

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 448 PP. • $21.00 • ISBN 978-0-14-312285-0 • 3/14

Thurston Clarke

JKF’s Last Days

The Tragedy of a Man and the Triumph of a Great President

A gripping account that weaves together Kennedy’s political and private lives, ending with the leadership of America in the aftermath of JFK’s sudden death..."—Library Journal

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 288 PP. • $16.00 • ISBN 978-0-14-312301-9 • 3/08

John M. Barry

The Troublemakers

American Unionism and the Birth of Labor’s Most Fertile Decade

"...Barry’s... history or the development of a more literate, educated labor movement... is thoughtful..."—Library Journal

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 256 PP. • $16.00 • ISBN 978-0-14-312286-4 • 3/14

Aquinas

Politics, and the Promise of Liberty

"...Aristotle’s... insights... are applicable today..."—Library Journal

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 416 PP. • $25.00 • ISBN 978-0-14-312287-1 • 3/14

David Lefer

The Founding Conservatives

How a Group of Unlikely Saints Saved the American Revolution

"...A remarkable and important book. The book will change the way we think about the American Founding..."—Library Journal

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 384 PP. • $19.00 • ISBN 978-0-14-312282-9 • 3/14

QUESTIONS? COMMENTS? CONTACT US AT:

City: _____________________________

Card Address (if different from shipping address): ____________________________________________________________________________________________

Anticipated Enrollment: ____________________________

STATE:

City: _____________________________

State: _____________________________

Address: ____________________________________________________________________________________________

Anticipated Enrollment: ____________________________

ZIP CODE: ____________________________

Card: ____________________________________________________________________________________________

State: _____________________________

Anticipated Enrollment: ____________________________

City: _____________________________

Name: ____________________________

Fax: ___________________________

Powered by TCPDF (www.tcpdf.org)
NEW TITLES IN AMERICAN HISTORY

JOHN M. BARRY
Roger Williams and the Creation of the American Soul
"BARRY’s book is a magnificent biography of the great colonial reformer who thought outside the American Revolution. (The Boston Globe)"

NATHANIEL PHILBRICK
Bunker Hill: A City, a Siege, a Revolution
"Philbrick’s new book is a masterwork...loathed and whitelyideness to the American Revolution. (The Boston Globe)"

KEVIN PHILLIPS
1775: A Good Year for Revolution
"Historian Phillips suggests that the great events and confrontations of 1775 achieved a profound repositioning of territory and local government that helped to usher in the American Revolution. (The New York Times)"

MICHAEL FULLILove
Rendezvous with Destiny
"Fulilove’s book looks likely to lead to new academic rigor in its approach to the Voyages of Thomas Jefferson. (The New York Times)"

THOMAS E. RICKS
The General: American Military Command from World War II to Today
"Ricks’s new book is a masterpiece and is sure to lead to...the American military. (The New York Times)"

MANNING MARABLE and
GARRETT FELBER, editors
The Portable Malcolm X Reader
"Marables new book brings Malcolm X to life..." "his collection...of Malcolm X’s speeches and writings..." (The Nation)

JUAN WILLIAMS
Eyes on the Prize: America’s Civil Rights Years, 1954–1965
"Trolly s book is a monumental achievement...relationships and dilemma of the civil rights movement. (The New York Times)"

TANNER COLBY
Some of My Best Friends Are Black
"The Struggle for Integration in America
The book is a good read and a good read, especially for those who are interested in understanding black history. (The Washington Post)"

JAMES R. BARRETT
The Irish Way: Becoming American in the Multi-Ethnic City
"BARRETT’s book is a wonderful read and a good read, especially for those who are interested in understanding black history. (The Washington Post)"

DAVID NASAW
The Patriarch: The Remarkable Life and Times of Joseph P. Kennedy
"In his new book, Nasaw unearths a man far more complicated than the popular portrait. (The New York Times)"

IRISH WAY
James W. Barrett
"Barrett’s book is a wonderful read and a good read, especially for those who are interested in understanding black history. (The Washington Post)"

DEPARTMENT:

375 Hudson Street
New York, NY 10014

SUBTOTAL:

$16.00

Anticipated Enrollment:

TOTAL FEE:

$26.95

PENGUIN GROUP (USA)
HARDCOVERS: $10.00

*Appropriate state and local sales tax.

Terms and Conditions

All examination copy orders require a U.S. ship-to address.

Orders will be processed in 4-6 weeks.

Examination Copy Order Form

EXAMINATION COPY ORDER FORM / ACADEMIC HISTORIAN 2014

Please indicate the type of payment below:

I Enclosed a check made payable to: Massachusetts Historical Society

Please charge my: MasterCard

Visa

American Express

Discover

Card Number

Expiration Date

Signature

Name (please print)

Address

City

State

Zip

Telephone

Fax

Email

School Address (optional)

Please indicate your form of payment below:

I Enclosed a check made payable to: Massachusetts Historical Society

Please charge my: MasterCard

Visa

American Express

Discover

Card Number

Expiration Date

Signature

Name (please print)

Address

City

State

Zip

Telephone

Fax

Email

School Address (optional)

Note: Examination Copy Orders are processed in the order in which they are received.不允许 operates only. Allow a minimum of 4-6 weeks for processing.

"The Irish Way: Becoming American in the Multi-Ethnic City

AMERICAN HISTORY 2014

BOOK LIST

TITLE ISBN FEE

ACADEMIC@PENGUIN.COM
NEW TITLES IN AMERICAN HISTORY

A. SCOTT BERG

Wilson
In addition to his hundreds of essays and books on the United States, public policy, the Cold War, and social and cultural history, Scott Berg is the author of the definitive biography of Woodrow Wilson. A singular figure in American politics and world affairs, Wilson will be a topic of great interest for the coming year, and Berg is one of the most respected voices on the subject.

Available in November 2014

DAVID NASAW

The Patriarch: The Remarkable Life and Textured Times of Joseph P. Kennedy
During an era before published financial analyses or court transcripts, David Nasaw paints a portrait of a man whose financial decisions and political calculations were complex and inextricable.

Available in November 2014

ERIC SCHLOSSER

Nuclear Weapons, the Damascus Accident, and the Illusion of Safety
Investigative journalist Eric Schlosser blends a riveting minute-by-minute account of a nuclear accident with the history of the nuclear infrastructure, production, and deployment.

Available in October 2014

THURSTON CLARKE

JFK’s Last Days
A gripping account of what happened immediately prior to and during the assassination, JFK’s Last Days is the first book to combine a wealth of never-before-seen and recently discovered declassified information. It is a fresh examination of one of the most controversial events in recent history—what caused the death of the president and whether that death was murder.

Available in September 2014

JOHN M. BARRY

The General: American Military Command from World War I to Today
The General follows the distinguished careers of four of history’s most influential military leaders: John Pershing, George Marshall, Dwight Eisenhower, and Colin Powell. Barry’s vivid, fast-paced narrative brings history to life.

Available in September 2014

NATHANIEL PHILBRICK

Bunker Hill: A City, a Siege, a Revolution
Philbrick’s new book is a triumph of archival research that upends the American Revolution. (Farther south, eighteen Township and widely disliked Massasoit, who just happens to be interested in founding towns and all that.)

Available in October 2014

KEVIN PHILLIPS

1775: A Good Year for Revolution
Historian Kevin Phillips says that the great events and confrontations of 1775 achieved a constituting federal reality for territory and local government that Britain never will.

Available in October 2014

MICHAIL FULLOVICH

Rendezvous with Destiny
Historian Mikhail Fullovolich, a former journalist who worked on the ice for the Times, Map America to the Wartime World

Available in October 2014

JAMES R. BARRETT

The Irish Way: How a Group of Unsung Heroes Saved the American Revolution
This lively, street-level history of turn-of-the-century urban life explores the American Revolution through the lens of the Irish influence in Philadelphia. A penetrating, refreshingly unsentimental look at the role of the Irish in shaping America.

Available in September 2014

DANNING MARABLE AND GARRETT FELBER, editors

The Portable Malcolm X Reader
The Portable Malcolm X Reader brings Malcolm X to life. Featuring biographies, speeches, and letters, the Portable Malcolm X Reader is illustrated with photographs from the civil rights era.

Available in July 2014

JUAN WILLIAMS

Eyes on the Prize: America’s Civil Rights Years, 1954–1965
This milestone volume in the acclaimed PBS television series celebrates the monumental events that changed America forever. It includes scores of original photographs and video clips.

Available in October 2014

TANNER COLBY

Some of My Best Friends Are Black
The Strange Story of Integration in America
The thesis of this book is that America’s Cold War, and attempts to win allies in the Third World, were nearly as important to African American history as the Civil War. The New York Times Book Review

Available in October 2014

DAVID LEFER

The Founding Conservatives
How a Group of Unsung Heroes Saved the American Revolution
The Founding Conservatives is the first collection of major documents addressing Malcolm X in decades. Features editorials from the New York Times, the Philadelphia Inquirer, and other newspapers.

Available in September 2014
NEW TITLES IN AMERICAN HISTORY

John M. Barry

Roger Williams and the Creation of the American Soul

John M. Barry

“Mr. Barry puts Williams squarely among great prophetic founders, standing face to face with liberal democracy in the Americas. He is our first real founding father.” – Library Journal

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 978-0-14-312399-6 • $15.00

Nathaniel Philbrick

Bunker Hill: A City, a Siege, a Revolution

Nathaniel Philbrick

“Philbrick has written a book that to my mind is one of the finest books that explicates the American Revolution. (Philbrick) has written an insightful and deeply scholarly monograph that together is sure to remain with readers for a long time.” –Pauline Maier, The Washington Post Book World

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 978-0-14-312288-3 • $13.00

Kevin Phillips

1775: A Good Year for Revolution

Kevin Phillips

“Phillips makes a strong case that 1775 was the year the American Revolution began, because the revolutionary moment occurred in the context of the American colonies as a whole and not merely in the colonies that became the United States.” – Richard White, The New York Times Book Review

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 978-0-14-312363-7 • $15.00

Michael Fullilove

Rendezvous with Destiny

Michael Fullilove

“Fullilove, a former journalist, is a compelling storyteller who manages to make the sweep of America’s history and its many internal conflicts come alive.” – The Wall Street Journal

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 978-0-670-02544-2 • $15.00

Irish Way

James B. Barksdale

The Irish Way: Becoming American in the Multi-Ethnic City

James B. Barksdale

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 978-0-14-312287-6 • $15.00

James R. Barrett

The Founding Conservatives: How a Group of Unlikely Saints Saved the American Revolution

James R. Barrett

“Barkley’s book is filled with richly written portraits of the ideas and people who created the nation’s destiny and laid the groundwork for what would become a great experiment in self-government.” – The New York Times

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 978-0-14-312220-1 • $15.00

David Lefer

The Founding Controversies: How a Group of Unlikely Saints Saved the American Revolution

David Lefer

“A captivating and perfect portrait of the struggle for American independence and the constitutional crisis that would put our new nation to the test.” – William J. Bryan, IV, Secretary of Defense

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 978-0-14-312209-5 • $15.00

Juan Williams

Eyes on the Prize

Juan Williams

“Ricks pulls no punches in naming names as he cites serious failures of leadership, evident in the Vietnam War and, alas, too many wars since then.” – Booklist (starred review)

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 978-0-14-312407-8 • $14.00

Tanner Colby

Some of My Best Friends Are Black

Tanner Colby

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 978-0-14-312398-9 • $12.00

Manning Marable and Garrett Felson, editors

The Portable Malcolm X Reader

Manning Marable and Garrett Felson

“Marable’s translation of Malcolm X into a modern cultural icon, in以其 ids are not yet fully known, the past, and today’s America is a truly inspiring read.” – The New York Times

PENGUIN CLASSICS PAPERBACK • 978-0-14-312256-3 • $13.00

William Ricks

Bones of the Republic

William Ricks

“A riveting tale of survival and sacrifice that brings to life the story of the H-bomb accident with a chilling assessment of the grave threat we face from nuclear weapons.” – Eric Schlosser, Command and Control

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 978-0-14-312362-0 • $12.00

David Nasaw

The Patriot

David Nasaw

“Nasaw’s treatment is both the most demanding and the most satisfying possible. It makes for reading that is at once absorbing and undeniable.” – The New York Times

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 978-0-14-312408-5 • $14.00

Eric Schlosser

Command and Control: The Truth about the Bomb

Eric Schlosser

“A riveting tale of survival and sacrifice that brings to life the story of the H-bomb accident with a chilling assessment of the grave threat we face from nuclear weapons.” – Eric Schlosser, Command and Control

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 978-0-14-312408-5 • $14.00

A. Scott Berg

The First Mayor

A. Scott Berg

“Mr. Berg takes an often-overlooked aspect of Wilson’s character and casts new light on his entire life.” – The New York Times

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 978-0-14-312397-2 • $14.00

David Nasaw

The Patriot

David Nasaw

“Nasaw’s treatment is both the most demanding and the most satisfying possible. It makes for reading that is at once absorbing and undeniable.” – The New York Times

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 978-0-14-312408-5 • $14.00