FEATURED TITLES

Bernardine Evaristo

BLONDE ROOTS
A provocative novel by “one of Britain’s most innovative authors” (New Nation) that upends the history of the transatlantic slave trade, reversing and reexamining notions of savagery and civilization, as it follows a young woman’s journey to freedom. “A riotous, bitter course in the arbitrary nature of our cultural values. What could we possibly learn from a new satire of slavery? Plenty.”—Washington Post Book World. “Evaristo tethers her imagination to slavery’s brute realities.”—Wall Street Journal.

THE SLAVE SHIP: A Human History
“This beautifully written and exhaustively researched book gives us unforgettable portraits of the captives, captains, and crewmen who came together in that particular kind of hell known as the slave ship.”—Robert Harms, Yale University. “Truly a magnificent and disturbing book—disturbing not only because it details the violence and barbarism of the free market in human beings, but it reminds us that all actors in this drama are human, including the ship’s crew.”—Robin D. G. Kelley, University of Southern California. 16-page b/w insert; 8 maps.

A QUESTION OF FREEDOM
A Memoir of Survival, Learning, and Coming of Age in Prison
Incarcerated at sixteen for a carjacking, the author reflects upon his 8-year term in Virginia’s worst prisons, seeking to understand how his past led to his crime. “Dwayne Betts was incarcerated…in an unforgiving place—a place in which he also discovered the incredible power of books and reading. He’s written his own life-changing book, which may well prevent other young men from making that detour to prison. A searing and ultimately uplifting story.”—Hill Harper, author of Letters to a Young Brother.

THE MAKING OF AFRICAN AMERICA
The Four Great Migrations
A leading historian offers a sweeping account of the African American experience over four centuries by focusing on the four different migrations: the forced Middle Passage to slavery, the relocation of one million slaves to the interior of the ante-bellum South, the movement of six million former slaves from the rural South to industrial cities in the North, and since the 1960s, the arrival of black immigrants from Africa, South America, Europe and the Caribbean.

OUR NIG
or, Sketches from the Life of a Free Black 150th Anniversary Edition
Edited with an Expanded Introduction and Notes by P. Gabrielle Foreman and Reginald H. Pitts
This autobiographical narrative of the ante-bellum North is the first book by an African American writer published in America (1859)—who was also a pioneering entrepreneur of black women’s hair care. “The landmark research and skilful criticism done by Foreman and Pitts should shape discussion of Our Nig for years to come.”—African American Review. Replaces 978-0-14-243777-3.
Penguin Classics • 176 pp. • 978-0-14-310576-3 • $13.00

GANG LEADER FOR A DAY
A Rogue Sociologist Takes to the Streets
The story of a bold sociology graduate student who befriended a gang leader in Chicago and for seven years was able to observe the fascinating, complicated, and often dangerous everyday life of the gang from the inside. “Absolutely incredible…Venkatesh’s memoir of his years observing life in Chicago’s inner city is a book unlike any other I have read.”—Steven D. Levitt, co-author of Freakonomics.

Paul Laurence Dunbar

THE SPORT OF THE GODS
Introduction by William L. Andrews
The author tells the story of a displaced family’s struggle to survive and prosper in early Harlem. “I should feel that he had made the strongest claim for the negro in English literature that the negro has yet made. He has at least produced something that, however we may critically disagree about it, we cannot well refuse to enjoy.”—William Dean Howells, author of The Rise of Silas Lapham.

PENGUIN GROUP (USA)
College Faculty Information Service

Penguin Group (USA) offers course adoption assistance as near as your phone or computer. Over the past few years, the College Faculty Information Service has grown to cover a wide range of fine titles from all Penguin Group (USA) imprints in a continuing effort to offer personalized service to college professors and enhance information provided by our college reps in the field.

HOW THE SERVICE WORKS

Any assistant, associate, adjunct, or full professor who teaches in the United States and regularly adopts paperbacks is invited to join the Penguin Group (USA) College Faculty Information Service. Simply complete and return the questionnaire on the next page, and we’ll send you catalogs relevant to your courses and ordering information. Thereafter, you can contact us anytime to discuss appropriate titles and free exam copy choices.

HOW THE PROGRAM WILL HELP YOU

Through CFIS, you’ll receive information on new and forthcoming books of interest to you and free exam copies for possible course adoption. Our representative will be glad to review Penguin Group (USA)’s extensive backlist—an invaluable aid in developing new courses, and answer any questions about our titles that you may have. We’re available to discuss not only current titles but your ideas on books that you’d like to see Penguin publish. We value your suggestions—they assist us in acquiring books that are most relevant to you as educators.

INTERESTED?

Look through this catalog and note the outstanding books and low prices that have made Penguin Group (USA) the first choice of educators. Then fill out the questionnaire and send it to us.

The questionnaire is also available on our website:

http://us.penguingroup.com/academic

It’s the first step to a collaborative process a collaborative process that will help you select the best books (at the best prices) for your courses.
