PENGUIN CIVIC CLASSICS

Penguin Civic Classics is a series of six portable, accessible, and—above all—essential reads from American political history, selected by leading scholars. Series editor Richard Beeman, author of The Penguin Guide to the U.S. Constitution, draws together the great texts of American civic life, including the founding documents, pivotal historical speeches, and important Supreme Court decisions, to create a timely and informative mini-library of perennially vital issues.

American Political Speeches
Edited with an Introduction by Terry Golway

American Political Speeches includes the best American rhetoric from men and women who were able to move the nation with words. Includes Frederick Douglass, Martin Luther King, Jr., William Jennings Bryan, Abraham Lincoln, John F. Kennedy, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Ronald Reagan, and many more.

208 pages • 978-0-14-312195-4 • $12.00

Supreme Court Decisions
Edited with an Introduction by Jay M. Feinman

Legal expert Jay M. Feinman introduces and selects some of the most important Supreme Court Decisions of all time, which touch on the very foundations of American society. These cases cover a vast array of issues, from the powers of government and freedom of speech to freedom of religion and civil liberties.

176 pages • 978-0-14-312199-2 • $12.00

Thomas Paine

Common Sense
Introduction by Richard Beeman

Published anonymously in 1776, six months before the Declaration of Independence, Common Sense was a radical and impassioned call for America to free itself and set up an independent republican government. Savagely attacking hereditary kingship and aristocratic institutions, Paine urged a new beginning for his adopted country in which personal freedom and social equality would be upheld and economic and cultural progress encouraged.

176 pages • 978-0-14-312200-5 • $12.00

Abraham Lincoln

Lincoln Speeches
Edited with an Introduction by Allen C. Guelzo

Abraham Lincoln endowed all of his rhetoric with vigor and moral energy, no matter the subject: the duty of the citizenry, the coming of freedom, the meaning of governance, the evils of slavery, the value of progress. The speeches selected for this volume by Lincoln expert Allen C. Guelzo are a testament to our history and a window into the mind of one of America’s greatest leaders.

208 pages • 978-0-14-312198-5 • $12.00

The Declaration of Independence and the United States Constitution
Annotated with an Introduction by Richard Beeman

No citizen of the United States should be without the Declaration and the Constitution, the most important documents in the nation’s history. Richard Beeman’s annotations and modernizing commentary make these foundational and indispensable texts approachable for all, showing why they remain at the core of modern American life.

176 pages • 978-0-14-312196-1 • $12.00

Alexander Hamilton, James Madison, and John Jay

The Federalist Papers
Edited with an Introduction by Richard Beeman

Written at a time when furious arguments were raging about the best way to govern America, The Federalist Papers had the immediate practical aim of persuading New Yorkers to accept the newly drafted Constitution in 1787; Beeman’s analysis helps clarify the goals, at once separate and in concert, of Madison, Hamilton, and Jay during their writing, and his selections show the array of issues—both philosophical and policy-specific—covered by this body of work.

Norman Davies
VANISHED KINGDOMS
The Rise and Fall of States and Nations
“An expedition along the byways of European history. It is in part a traveller’s tale, as Davies tours his half-forgotten realms, describing people and landscape, searching for memories and physical remains of these vanished kingdoms. Combined with this are the ruminations of a historian about the states and societies that are this book’s heroes and the reasons why they vanished from the map.”—Dominic Lieven, Financial Times.

THE COMMANDANT
Translated by Andrew Pollinger
Edited by Jürg Amann
Introduction by Ian Baruma
“Brevity makes it no less stomach churning. The monologue describes Hoess’s rise in the S.S. directly under Heinrich Himmler’s tutelage and shows Himmler as the most brutally efficient of functionaries, so vile and so lacking human sensibilities as to be in danger of being rendered as a cartoon character.”—Library Journal.

Greg Palast
VULTURES’ PICNIC
In Pursuit of Petroleum Pigs, Power Pirates, and High-Finance Carnivores
“Doggedly independent, undaunted by power... [Palast’s] stories bite—so relevant they threaten to alter history.”—Chicago Tribune.
 “[Palast] is the last of the great investigative reporters.”—Robert F. Kennedy, Jr.
Plume • 416 pp. • 978-0-452-29864-4 • $17.00

Henry Pollack
A WORLD WITHOUT ICE
A Nobel Peace Prize winner explores the crucial, yet threatened, relationship between humans and ice, examining the effects of climate change on drinking water, agriculture, sea levels, and the political future of Antarctica. “A splendid and accessible account of Antarctica and the Arctic, the dynamic and life-sustaining nature of ice, and the urgency of mitigation strategies.”—Gilbert S. Omenn, University of Michigan. “A thorough reminder of what it means to live in a planet with poles and glaciers, and what it will be like without them.”—Bill McKibben.
Avery • 304 pp. • 978-1-59333-407-2 • $16.00

Stephen J. Pyne
