THINKING & COGNITION

Nancy C. Andreasen
THE CREATIVE BRAIN
The Science of Genius
Andreasen, an acclaimed brain scientist, proposes that, due to enriched connections between certain areas of the brain, geniuses are able to tap into the unconscious mind in ways that most of us can’t. She also explores the link between creativity and mental illness, and shows how all of us can enhance our creative potential through mental exercises.

Arthur S. Bard, Mitchell G. Bard
COMPLETE IDIOT’S GUIDE TO UNDERSTANDING THE BRAIN
Seven verbal and photographic essays examine the relationship between reality and perception and trace the role of art in understanding the world.

Edward de Bono
TEACH YOUR CHILD HOW TO THINK
“A practical handbook for parents to use in training their children (ages nine and up) in effective thinking, although adults will surely benefit from the concepts as well.”—Library Journal.

Tony Buzan
USE BOTH SIDES OF YOUR BRAIN
New Mind-Mapping Techniques
Third Edition
Using the latest research on the working of the brain, Buzan, one of the world’s leading authorities on learning techniques, provides step-by-step exercises for discovering the powers of the right side of the brain and learning to use the left side more effectively.

John Berger
WAYS OF SEEING
How It Shapes the Brain, Opens the Imagination, and Invigorates the Soul
Through a series of case studies Damasio demonstrates what many of us have long suspected: emotions are not a luxury, they are essential to rational thinking and to normal social behavior.

Antonio Damasio
DESCARTES’ ERROR
Emotion, Reason, and the Human Brain
A revelatory exploration of the vast, hidden impact of memory on every aspect of our lives.

Slanislas Dehaene
READING IN THE BRAIN
The New Science of How We Read
“Brings together the cognitive, the cultural, and the neurological in an elegant, compelling narrative. A revelatory work.”—Oliver Sacks, M.D.

Norman Dodge
THE BRAIN THAT CHANGES ITSELF
Stories of Personal Triumph from the Frontiers of Brain Science
Using the stories of people whose lives have been transformed by an astonishing new science called neuroplasty, Doidge shows that thoughts can actually change the structure of our brains.

Norman Dodge
THE BRAIN THAT CHANGES ITSELF
Stories of Personal Triumph from the Frontiers of Brain Science
Using the stories of people whose lives have been transformed by an astonishing new science called neuroplasty, Doidge shows that thoughts can actually change the structure of our brains.

Steve Johnson
WHERE GOOD IDEAS COME FROM
The Natural History of Innovation
Ranging across time and multiple disciplines, Johnson examines how we generate the ideas that push our careers, our lives, our society, and our culture forward.

Christine Kenneally
THE ORIGINS OF LANGUAGE
A Cambridge-educated linguist focuses on figures such as Noam Chomsky and Steven Pinker, along with cognitive scientists, biologists, geneticists, and animal researchers in their search for the origins of human language.
HAPPINESS

HAPPINESS

Rick Foster and Greg Hicks

HOW WE CHOOSE TO BE HAPPY

Now featuring new research and the most current information on the science of happiness, this book presents an outline of the nine choices happy people consistently make.

Penguin • 320 pp. • 978-0-14-311661-5 • $16.00

Mardi Horowitz, M.D.

A COURSE IN HAPPINESS

Mastering the 3 Levels of Self-Understanding That Lead to True and Lasting Contentment

According to Dr. Horowitz, happiness is essentially a by-product of self-knowledge. Here he details a course in mastering the three levels of self-understanding that underlie happiness: integration, intimacy, and integrity. “Wise counsel from one of America’s most respected psychiatrists.”—Irvin Yalom, Stanford University.

Tarcher • 320 pp. • 978-1-58542-780-2 • $15.95

Winner of the Nautilus Silver Award

Richard Layard

HAPPINESS

Lessons from a New Science

Draws surprising conclusions about the true causes of happiness and the means we have to effect it. “From neuroscience to economics, Lord Layard shows us the landscape of this science and why happiness should be taken seriously.”—Richard J. Davidson, Professor of Psychology and Psychiatry, University of Wisconsin-Madison.

François Lelord

HECTOR AND THE SEARCH FOR HAPPINESS

See page 23

Sonja Lyubomirsky

THE HOW OF HAPPINESS

A New Approach to Getting the Life You Want

“Is lasting happiness attainable or a pipe dream? For the last eighteen years, University of California-Riverside professor of psychology Sonja Lyubomirsky has studied this question, and what she reports might even sway pessimists.”—U.S. News & World Report. “Lyubomirsky’s central point is clear: a significant portion of what is called happiness...is up for grabs. Taking some pages out of the positive psychology playbook, she coaches readers on how to snap it.”—The New York Review of Books.

Penguin • 384 pp. • 978-0-14-311495-6 • $15.00

Richard H. Thaler and Cass R. Sunstein

NUDGE

Improving Decisions About Health, Wealth, and Happiness

Citing decades of innovative behavioral science research, Thaler and Sunstein demonstrate that sensible “choice architecture” can successfully nudge people towards the best decisions without restricting their freedom of choice. “A must-read for anyone who wants to see both our minds and our society working better.”—Daniel Kahneman, Princeton University, Nobel Laureate in Economics.

Penguin • 320 pp. • 978-0-14-311526-7 • $16.00

The Penguin Dictionary of Psychology
Third Edition
The definitive guide to psychological terms—fully revised and updated, this dictionary focuses on what a given technical description means, how the term is actually employed, its connotations, and how it has been used—and abused—in the past. “Reber brings humour and common sense to defining some 17,000 terms...deserves to become a classic of its kind.”—The Times Educational Supplement (London).

PENGUIN GROUP (USA)
College Faculty Information Service

Penguin Group (USA) offers course adoption assistance as near as your phone or computer. Over the past few years, the College Faculty Information Service has grown to cover a wide range of fine titles from all Penguin Group (USA) imprints in a continuing effort to offer personalized service to college professors and enhance information provided by our college reps in the field.

HOW THE SERVICE WORKS

Any assistant, associate, adjunct, or full professor who teaches in the United States and regularly adopts paperbacks is invited to join the Penguin Group (USA) College Faculty Information Service. Simply complete and return the questionnaire on the next page, and we’ll send you catalogs relevant to your courses and ordering information. Thereafter, you can contact us anytime to discuss appropriate titles and free exam copy choices.

HOW THE PROGRAM WILL HELP YOU

Through CFIS, you’ll receive information on new and forthcoming books of interest to you and free exam copies for possible course adoption. Our representative will be glad to review Penguin Group (USA)’s extensive backlist—an invaluable aid in developing new courses, and answer any questions about our titles that you may have. We’re available to discuss not only current titles but your ideas on books that you’d like to see Penguin publish. We value your suggestions—they assist us in acquiring books that are most relevant to you as educators.

INTERESTED?

Look through this catalog and note the outstanding books and low prices that have made Penguin Group (USA) the first choice of educators. Then fill out the questionnaire and send it to us. The questionnaire is also available on our website:

www.penguin.com/facinfo

It’s the first step to a collaborative process that will help you select the best books (at the best prices) for your courses.
