Ruth Fowler
GIRL, UNDRESSED
On Stripping in New York City
The gritty tale of a young woman’s descent into the world of strip clubs and how she pulled herself out. “Fowler’s excoriating narrative quite effectively undermines perceptions of sex work as a viable form of postmodern female empowerment.” —Guardian (UK).
Penguin • 272 pp. • 978-0-14-311565-6 • $15.00

Michelle Goldberg
THE MEANS OF REPRODUCTION
Sex, Power, and the Future of the World
“We know how to radically improve women’s lives around the world: give them education, power, and the liberty to control their own bodies... Goldberg’s sweeping saga about how this consensus came about, and the tragic impediments to putting it into practice, may be the most important book you’ll ever read about the future of the human race.” —Rick Perlstein, author of Nixonland.

THE TIN TICKET
The Heroic Journey of Australia’s Convict Women
The true story of 25,000 women exiled from the British Isles who were forced into slavery and savagery—and who created the most liberated society of their time. “The stories of the women in this book are not too different from those of the millions who are trafficked across continents even today for cheap labor or sex. And like these women, the founding mothers of Australia exemplify the same remarkable resilience and resourcefulness that women show to pull themselves and their families out of adversity”—Ritu Sharma, Women Thrive Worldwide.

BLACK MILK
On Writing, Motherhood, and the Harem Within
Translated by Hande Zapsu
After the birth of her first child, the Turkish novelist suffered from postpartum depression and stopped writing. In this memoir, Shafak retraces her journey from free-spirited, nomadic artist to dedicated but emotionally wounded mother. As she intersperses her own experience with the lives of prominent authors such as Sylvia Plath, Virginia Woolf, Alice Walker, Ayn Rand, and Zelda Fitzgerald, she looks for a solution to the inherent conflict between artistic creation and responsible parenting.

Olga Grushin
THE LINE
An estranged family in Soviet Russia joins a colorfull group of strangers waiting in a year-long line for tickets—a line which formed on the rumor that a famous exiled composer will be returning to Moscow to conduct his last symphony. “Grushin has a marvelous talent for appearances and atmospheres…that remind the reader of Nabokov.”—The New York Times Book Review.

Jessica Hagedorn
TOXICOLOGY
“Hagedorn’s brilliant writerly eye sees far beneath surfaces; her voice transmutes what she sees into language so clear and frank and unafraid, it shocks the reader awake. The novel’s protagonists are a pair of fascinating, glamorous, formidable women, and their intertwining lives, addictions, and passions make for hypnotic reading.”—Kate Christensen, author of The Great Man.

Cristina Henríquez
THE WORLD IN HALF
Tells the story of Miraflores, who travels to Panama in search of her unknown father. “A series of masterly drawn glimpses into the story-making art of one of Africa’s great modern literary geniuses.”—Alan Cheuse, NPR.

THE SECRET LIFE OF BEES

Jean Kwok
GIRL IN TRANSLATION
When Kimberly Chang and her mother emigrate from Hong Kong to Brooklyn squalor, she quickly begins a secret double life: exceptional schoolgirl during the day, Chinatown sweatshop worker by night. “An incredibly impressive debut.”—Vendela Vida, co-editor of The Believer. “Perfectly captures the voice and perspective of a young immigrant.”—Min Jin Lee, author of Free Food for Millionaires.

Jane Gardam
THE MAN IN THE WOODEN HAT
In this companion to Old Filth, the history of Eddie and Betty’s marriage is told from the wife’s perspective. “An extraordinarily rich account of a long marriage, the restraints, the compromises and the sacrifices as much as the secrets and the unexpected—and often earned—rewards.”—Guardian (UK).

Camilla Gibb
THE BEAUTY OF HUMANITY MOVEMENT
An art curator who is Vietnamese by birth but who has lived most of her life in the United States, Maggie returns to her country of origin in search of clues to her dissident father’s disappearance. “Well written and engaging, with characters that represent the participants and consequences of a country in the middle of great change, this work is recommended.”—Library Journal.

Penguin Group (USA) offers course adoption assistance as near as your phone or computer. Over the past few years, the College Faculty Information Service has grown to cover a wide range of fine titles from all Penguin Group (USA) imprints in a continuing effort to offer personalized service to college professors and enhance information provided by our college reps in the field.

HOW THE SERVICE WORKS

Any assistant, associate, adjunct, or full professor who teaches in the United States and regularly adopts paperbacks is invited to join the Penguin Group (USA) College Faculty Information Service. Simply complete and return the questionnaire on the next page, and we’ll send you catalogs relevant to your courses and ordering information. Thereafter, you can contact us anytime to discuss appropriate titles and free exam copy choices.

HOW THE PROGRAM WILL HELP YOU

Through CFIS, you’ll receive information on new and forthcoming books of interest to you and free exam copies for possible course adoption. Our representative will be glad to review Penguin Group (USA)’s extensive backlist—an invaluable aid in developing new courses, and answer any questions about our titles that you may have. We’re available to discuss not only current titles but your ideas on books that you’d like to see Penguin publish. We value your suggestions—they assist us in acquiring books that are most relevant to you as educators.

INTERESTED?

Look through this catalog and note the outstanding books and low prices that have made Penguin Group (USA) the first choice of educators. Then fill out the questionnaire and send it to us.

The questionnaire is also available on our website:

It’s the first step to a collaborative process that will help you select the best books (at the best prices) for your courses.

Penguin proudly presents an unparalleled survey of the best poems of the past century.

Rita Dove, Pulitzer Prize-winning poet and former U.S. Poet Laureate, introduces readers to the most significant and compelling poems of the past hundred years. Selecting from the canon of American poetry throughout the twentieth century, Dove has created an anthology that represents the full spectrum of aesthetic sensibilities—from styles and voices to themes and cultures—while balancing important poems with significant periods of each poet. Featuring poems both classic and contemporary, this collection reflects both a dynamic and cohesive portrait of modern American poetry and outlines its trajectory over the past century.

Looking for a classic? There's an app for that!

Penguin Classics: A Complete Annotated Listing iPhone App is an exciting Web-based app that connects you to the classics like never before, putting descriptions of all Penguin Classics currently in print right in your pocket! In addition to featuring the complete, annotated list of the Penguin Classics library, the app challenges readers to test their Penguin Classics knowledge with a fun and engaging quiz that spans over 60 Classics works.

For those new to the Classics or unsure of what to read, our App features a "Discover the Classics" section which lets you discover Classics based on your search parameters. Feeling lucky? Give your iPhone a shake and see what the App finds for you. And be sure to check the “Essential Classics” section, a must for any Classics aficionado!
