THE LITTLE BOOK—Selden Edwards (Plume June 416 pp. 978-0-452-29551-3 $15.00) A modern-day San Franciscan finds himself in 1897 Vienna. “Delightfully mad...Enthusiasts of Vienna and narratives of time travel are in for a thrilling ride.”—San Francisco Chronicle.

THE WISH MAKER—Ali Sethi (Riverhead June 304 pp. 978-1-59448-865-7 $25.95) “The Wish Maker, in Ali Sethi’s mature and sure-handed prose, is an engaging family saga, an absorbing coming-of-age story, and an illuminating look at one of the world’s most turbulent regions. Ali Sethi steadfastly resists the usual clichés about both Islam and his native country. Instead, he offers a nuanced, often humorous, and always novel look at life in modern day Pakistan.”—Khaled Hosseini.

LETTERS TO A YOUNG SISTER: Define Your Destiny—Hill Harper (Gotham May 320 pp. 978-1-592-40459-9 $15.00) Foreword by Gabrielle Union. “A wonderful gift for any teen looking to find her place in life.”—Star Tribune (Minneapolis-St. Paul).
THE SELECTED WORKS OF T.S. SPIVET
—Reif Larsen (Penguin Press May 352 pp. 978-1-59420-217-9 $27.95)
“Two predictions: readers are going to love it as much as I did, and few if any will have experienced anything like it. I’m flabbergasted by Larsen’s talent, and I was warmed by his generosity. Here is a book that does the impossible: it combines Twain, Pynchon, and Little Miss Sunshine. Good novels entertain; great ones come as a gift to the readers who are lucky enough to find them. This book is a treasure.”—Stephen King.

PITCH PERFECT The Quest for Collegiate A Cappella Glory—Mickey Rapkin (Gotham Available Now 288 pp. 978-1-592-40463-6 $15.00)
