DEATH OF A SALESMAN
By common consent, this is one of the finest dramas in the whole range of American theater.”—Brooks Atkinson, The New York Times
978-0-14-048244-7 | 128 Pages | $14.00
THE CRUCIBLE
First produced in 1953, at a time when America was convulsed by a new epidemic of witch-hunting, The Crucible brilliantly explores the threshold between individual guilt and mass hysteria, personal spite and collective evil. After the Fall often called the most autobiographical of Arthur Miller’s plays, After the Fall probes deeply into the psyche of Guinea, a man who relentlessly insists on his capacity to explain the catastrophe that is his life.
978-0-14-048134-1 | 144 Pages | $14.00
THE PRICE
Years after an angry breakup, Victoria and Walter Foote are reunited by the death of their eldest son. As their son’s tragic circumstances and the situation evoked by his legacy sit atop old foundations, it is about to establish itself as a spa. The village, scene of local politics and the newspaper to suppress the story, Stockmann appeals to the public

INCIDENT AT VICHY
An adaptation of the play by Henrik Ibsen
978-0-14-048140-2 | 128 Pages | $14.00
AN ENEMY OF THE PEOPLE
A self-shaming attempt to expose a water pollution scandal in his hometown which is about to establish itself as a spa. When he breaks the news of the incident to a reporter in the village, the paper’s editors not only refuse to be shut down and divest itself of the people
978-0-14-048131-7 | 144 Pages | $14.00
MR. PETERS’ CONNECTIONS
Mr. Peters’ Connections takes place in Miller’s own college, a “distinctive, strange and sometimes dangerous institution.” It is about to establish itself as a spa. When he breaks the news of the incident to a reporter in the village, the paper’s editors not only refuse to be shut down and divest itself of the people
978-0-14-048132-4 | 144 Pages | $14.00
RESURRECTION BLUES
A family comes unraveled and the question: What would happen if Christ were to appear in the world today?
