The Táin
Translated with an Introduction by Ciaran Carson
A “brilliant and altogether engaging new translation” (Los Angeles Times) of the Old Irish epic, Táin Bó Cúailnge, the 8th-century tale of the legendary warrior Cú Chulainn. “Outstanding...[Carson’s] impressive gifts, as a storyteller and a highly skilled poet, and wizard of language combine to recreate the fabulous urgency of the Celtic Iron Age.”—Professor Robert Welch, Univ. of Ulster.

THE FIRST POEMS IN ENGLISH
Edited with an Introduction and Notes by Michael Alexander
The translations in this anthology of the greatest Old English poems retain the qualities of Anglo-Saxon meter and alliteration while preserving the flavor and nuance of the originals. Includes the heroic poems “Widsith,” “Deor,” “Brutamnurh,” “Maldon,” and passages from Beowulf; some of the famous riddles from The Exeter Book; all the elegies, including “The Ruin,” “The Wanderer,” “The Seafarer,” “The Wife’s Complaint,” and “The Husband’s Message,” in which the virtue of Old English is found in its purest and most concentrated form; and the great Christian poem “The Dream of the Rood.” Contains original text and verse translation.

Penguin proudly presents an unparalleled survey of the best poems of the past century.

Rita Dove, Pulitzer Prize-winning poet and former U.S. Poet Laureate, introduces readers to the most significant and compelling poems of the past hundred years. Selecting from the canon of American poetry throughout the twentieth century, Dove has created an anthology that represents the full spectrum of aesthetic sensibilities—from styles and voices to themes and cultures—while balancing important poems with significant periods of each poet. Featuring poems both classic and contemporary, this collection reflects both a dynamic and cohesive portrait of modern American poetry and outlines its trajectory over the past century.
Paul Strohm
CHAUCER'S TALE
1386 and the Road to Canterbury
Strohm unveils the fascinating story behind Chaucer’s journey from personal crisis to rebirth as the immortal poet of The Canterbury Tales. “The real thrill is [Strohm’s] portrait of Chaucer’s London, one square mile of church bells pealing, neighbors gossiping, politicians conniving, severed heads rotting on spikes (quite near Chaucer’s windows), and poetry rising out of all this.” —The New Yorker.

Stephen Fry
THE ODE LESS TRAVELLED Unlocking the Poet Within
“At once idiosyncratic and thoroughly traditional—it’s filled with quips, quirks and various Fry-isms, yet still manages to be a smart, comprehensive guide to prosody.”—David Orr, The New York Times Book Review. “Of all the poetry guides you’re likely to read, this one’s probably the most entertainingly written and downright useful. The book is full of technical terms—spondee, enjambment, trochee—but these are explained so clearly that we very quickly can use them as though we’ve been doing so all of our lives. The book is an education not only in the mechanics of poetry, but also in its history...English Lit students will learn more from this one book than they will from a stack of more traditional textbooks.”—Booklist. “Fry understands the saving role that humor can play in any discussion of poetry’s mechanics.”—The Wall Street Journal.

Join the PENGUIN PUBLISHING GROUP
College Faculty Information Service

Penguin Publishing Group offers course adoption assistance as near as your phone or computer. Over the past few years, the College Faculty Information Service has grown to cover a wide range of fine titles from all Penguin Publishing Group imprints in a continuing effort to offer personalized service to college professors and enhance information provided by our college reps in the field.

HOW THE SERVICE WORKS

Any assistant, associate, adjunct, or full professor who teaches in the United States and regularly adopts paperbacks is invited to join the College Faculty Information Service. Simply complete and return the questionnaire on the next page, and we’ll send you catalogs relevant to your courses and ordering information. Thereafter, you can contact us anytime to discuss appropriate titles and free exam copy choices.

HOW THE PROGRAM WILL HELP YOU

Through CFIS, you’ll receive information on new and forthcoming books of interest to you and free exam copies for possible course adoption. Our representative will be glad to review Penguin’s extensive backlist—an invaluable aid in developing new courses, and answer any questions about our titles that you may have. We’re available to discuss not only current titles but your ideas on books that you’d like to see Penguin publish. We value your suggestions—they assist us in acquiring books that are most relevant to you as educators.

INTERESTED?

Look through this catalog and note the outstanding books and low prices that have made Penguin the first choice of educators. Then fill out the questionnaire and send it to us.

The questionnaire is also available on our website:

penguin.com/facinfo

It’s the first step to a collaborative process that will help you select the best books (at the best prices) for your courses.
Yes, I am an assistant, associate, adjunct, or full professor in a U.S. university or college and want to take part in PENGUIN PUBLISHING GROUP’s College Faculty Information Service. I participate in decision making and agree that the purpose of requesting examination copies is to consider them for adoption in the courses I teach.
