NEW TITLES • ASIAN STUDIES

JACK WEATHERFORD
Genghis Khan and the Quest for God
How the World's Greatest Conqueror Gave Us Religious Freedom
"Genghis Khan and the Quest for God is a splendid addition to the growing list of books written about Genghis Khan. Weatherford makes a firmly argued case that religious tolerance in the thinking of Genghis Khan is just as much a means to an end as his use of force and胁迫 to create an empire. His move into religion and philosophy is a natural conclusion of his life's work. Ziegler makes the powerful case that this Asian Russia has been wrongly overshadowed by..." — Leo Ou-fan Lee, Chinese University of Hong Kong

DOMINIC ZIEGLER
A Journey Down the Amur River Between Russia and China
This narrative journey down the Amur—the river that serves as a large part of the Russia-China border—illuminates the area's history, ecology, and peoples and reveals how this borderland remains key to the complex relationship between Russia and China today. "Ziegler makes the powerful case that this Asian Russia has been wrongly overshadowed by..." — Leo Ou-fan Lee, Chinese University of Hong Kong

SUSAN SOUTHARD
Nagasaki: Life After War
An unflinching account of nuclear war. Nagasaki offers readers a day-by-day account of the destruction of two cities and the devastation of the Japanese population. Nagasaki: Life After War is thoroughly documented and richly textured. "...Nagasaki: Life After War is thoroughly documented and richly textured. " —Hertha D. Sweet Wong, University of California-Berkeley

SCOTT D. SELIGMAN
Tong Wars
A historical account of gang wars and organized crime in New York's Prohibition-era Chinatown. "...Tong Wars is the definitive account of gang wars and organized crime in New York's Prohibition-era Chinatown. " —Hertha D. Sweet Wong, University of California-Berkeley

LINDA EGENES and KUMUDA REDDY
The Ramayana: A New Retelling of Valmiki's
Thoughtful poetic expressions both original and modern….It stays true to the original Valmiki, and its exalted execution by Egenes and Reddy sounds natural to the thoughtful poetic expressions both original and modern….It stays true to the original Valmiki, and its exalted execution by Egenes and Reddy sounds natural to the..." —Hertha D. Sweet Wong, University of California-Berkeley

PENGUIN PUBLISHING GROUP
WWW.PENGUIN.COM/ACADEMIC

For complimentary examination copies and personalized college faculty information service (CFIS) at: WWW.PENGUIN.COM/ACADEMIC
NEW TITLES • ASIAN STUDIES

JACK WEATHERFORD
Genghis Khan and the Quest for God
How the World's Great Conqueror Gave Us Religions Freedom

"With a telling conclusion that the Western attitude of relativism has been undermined by the religious resilience of the Genghis Khan world, the mapping, well-considered.

DOMINIC ZIEGLER
Half Fairy Tale, Half Social Protest Novel
The Story of Hong Gildong

"Ziegler makes the powerful case that this Asian Russia has been wrongly overshadowed by the West."

MINSOO KANG, translator
The Story of Hong Gildong
INTRODUCTION AND COMMENTARIES BY THE TRANSLATOR

"Minsoo Kang's new translation makes the authoritative text of this pre-modern Korean classic available in English, reintroducing a noble outlaw and sharing a hallmark of Korean literature with readers around the world."

SUSAN SOUTHDAY
Nagasaki: Life under Atomic Nuclear War

"An unfolding account of nuclear war. Nagasaki, told through the eyes of the people who lived through the bombing, shows us the human consequences of war."

SCOTT D. SELIGMAN
Tong Wars
The United States of Vice, Money, and Murder in New York’s Chinatown

"A fascinating account of New York’s Chinatown in the first half of the 20th century."

PENGUIN PUBLISHING GROUP
WWW.PENGUIN.COM/ACADEMIC
WWW.PENGUIN.COM/FACINFO
WWW.PENGUIN.COM/ACADEMIC
WWW.PENGUIN.COM/ACADEMIC
Genghis Khan and the Quest for God

Scott D. Seligman

The Untold Story of Vice, Money, and Murder in New York’s Chinatown

John Minford, translator

The Story of Hong Gildong

Minsoo Kang, translator

NEW TITLES • ASIAN STUDIES

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 368 PAGES • 978-0-14-310989-1 • $17.00

Minsoo Kang’s new translation makes the authoritative text of this pre-modern Korean classic available in English, reintroducing a noble outlaw and sharing a hallmark of Korean literature: a tale that combines myth and history, fantasy and reality, to create a story that resonates for modern Koreans. “—Edmund Min. Kang, Dartmouth College

PENGUIN CLASSICS PAPERBACK • 928 PAGES • 978-0-14-310692-0 • $25.00

“Consistently eloquent and erudite, this rendition…will endure as a classic of the twenty-first century and beyond.”—Anthony C. Yu, University of Chicago

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 416 PAGES • 978-0-14-310769-9 • $15.00

Informed by recent archaeological discoveries, this new translation features a gorgeously illustrated version of the ancient Chinese oracle classic. The I Ching: Classic of the Changes is the cornerstone of Chinese cosmology, philosophy, and spirituality. “—Bal Ram Singh, Dartmouth College

PENGUIN CLASSICS PAPERBACK • 416 PAGES • 978-0-14-139257-8 • $17.00

It is the most poetic translation of this work to date and establishes MacMillan as an outstanding contributor to the American Chinese-language literature scene. “—Hertha D. Sweet Wong, University of California-Berkeley

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 368 PAGES • 978-0-14-310942-6 • $17.00

“Offers a startling conclusion: that the Western tradition of secularism in fact was enhanced by the religious tolerance of the great Mongolian warlord. An engaging, well-researched—and counterintuitive—intellectual odyssey.”—Victor Davis Hanson, Stanford University

VIKING HARDCOVER • 432 PAGES • 978-0-7352-2115-4 • $28.00

“Offers a startling conclusion: that the Western tradition of secularism in fact was enhanced by the religious tolerance of the great Mongolian warlord. An engaging, well-researched—and counterintuitive—intellectual odyssey.”—Victor Davis Hanson, Stanford University

NEW TITLES  •  ASIAN STUDIES

Jack Weatherford

Tales of Ise: The Ancient Epic—Complete and Comprehensive

Peng Peng Peng Peng

An unflinching account of nuclear war, Life After Nuclear War

Jack Weatherford

Ancient Epic—Complete and Comprehensive

VIKING HARDCOVER • 368 PAGES • 978-0-399-56227-3 • $29.00

“Black Dragon River: A Journey Down the Amur River Between Russia and China

Dominic Ziegler

The Untold Story of Vice, Money, and Murder in New York’s Chinatown

John Minford, translator

*Minsoo Kang, translator

The Story of Hong Gildong

John Minford, translator

The Ramayana: A New Rendering of Vedic’s Ancient Epic—Complete and Comprehensive

Linda Egenes and Kumuda Reddy

How the World’s Greatest Conqueror Gave Us Religious Freedom

Peter Macmillan, translator

Life After Nuclear War

Jack Weatherford

*A poignant and complex picture of the second atomic bomb’s enduring physical and spiritual legacy. “—Hertha D. Sweet Wong, University of California-Berkeley

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 416 PAGES • 978-0-14-310989-1 • $17.00

“Magnificent and necessary....A powerful way to engage with the moral conundrums surrounding our country’s use of atomic weapons.”—The New Yorker

PENGUIN PUBLISHING GROUP

WWW.PENGUIN.COM/FAACENTINFO

WWW.PENGUIN.COM/ACADEMIC

For complimentary examination copies and personalized permissions inquiries, contact: PENGUIN PUBLISHING GROUP (312) 869-5656 © 2017 PENGUIN PUBLISHING GROUP All rights reserved. No part of this book may be reproduced in any form without the permission of the publisher.
MARCO POLO
The Travels

PENGUIN CLASSICS PAPERBACK • 480 PAGES • 978-0-241-25305-2 • $16.00

Based on original medieval sources and completed by the great Venetian merchant, this is the most authentic and comprehensive account of Marco Polo’s travels. Here is a kaleidoscope of culture, society, and civilization, seen through the eyes of the greatest of all the world’s explorers. Intertwined with fascinating tales of adventure and heroism are insights into the lives, thoughts, and emotions of the people he met, recording in detail the customs and etiquette of their families and clans, and making Polo one of the most insightful witnesses to the cultures of Africa, Asia, and Europe. This is the version that made Polo an inspiration for Cervantes in Don Quixote, Dickens in Nicholas Nickleby, and Carroll in Alice’s Adventures in Wonderland.

MO YAN
Red Sorghum
TRANSLATED BY HOWARD GOLDBLATT
PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 288 PAGES • 978-0-14-310927-3 • $16.00

“An exploded-view of a small bomb that goes off in a minor market in a corner of a remote northern Chinese town. I waswriting an exploration of China’s collective memory and its way of forgetting. The story is not about the beginning or the end, but about the fleeting middle—the complex and warp of a life, that one may retrieve fragments of in our life and then put together the form of a story.”

MOHSEN HAMID
A Plague of Flowers
TRANSLATED WITH AN INTRODUCTION BY RICHARD MUNSON
RIVERHEAD PAPERBACK • 240 PAGES • 978-0-14-119210-9 • $16.00

“A remarkable and gripping novel, enigmatic, gay, and hypnotic, that’s told in layers and multiple voices as an account of a young man’s experiences as an illegal gunrunner in Afghanistan. It’s an odyssey from North Korea to the United States to the Middle East.”

YEONMI PARK WITH MARYANNE VOLLERS
In Order To Live

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 400 PAGES • 978-0-14-312838-0 • $17.00

Park uses her experiences to show how and why North Koreans are driven to seek freedom in their own country and beyond. Through their stories, In Order To Live demonstrates the extent to which North Korean suffering is no less real than that of victims of other forms of oppression, making it a moral imperative that we pay attention to it. In this deeply moving memoir, Park reveals the inhumanity of life under a totalitarian dictatorship, while making a case for the power of hope and human creativity.

BLAIRE HAIDEN
The Great Leader and the Fighter Pilot

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 304 PAGES • 978-0-14-044970-9 • $17.00

The interwoven stories of Kim Il-Sung and MiG fighter pilot No Kum Sok are carefully told in this riveting and heady novel of a country on the verge of collapse. No Kum Sok is an unconventional, fiery leader who knows how to use the weapons of war to bring down the regime of Kim Il-Sung, and who does not hesitate to use violence. Having called three countries on three continents home—Pakistan, the United States, and North Korea—and信息披露的国度, this novel is a powerful story of love, hope, and resilience in the face of overwhelming adversity.

MOHSEN HAMID
The Cartel
TRANSLATED WITH AN INTRODUCTION BY RICHARD MUNSON
PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 256 PAGES • 978-0-14-312291-3 • $16.00

“In The Cartel, the author of Paris 21: A Novel of the Banlieue offers a bold and original story about how the power of literature can help to achieve freedom.”

RYUNOSUKE AKUTAGAWA
Essays in Idleness
TRANSLATED WITH AN INTRODUCTION BY RICHARD MUNSON
PENGUIN CLASSICS PAPERBACK • 256 PAGES • 978-0-14-312294-4 • $16.00

Based on original medieval sources and complete with a lively introduction and notes, The Travels is an account of Marco Polo’s journey from Venice to China and back again. The description of China and the Chinese is revealing, and the book includes a fascinating account of Polo’s life in China and his return to Venice. The Travels is a classic of Western literature and a source of inspiration for countless later works.

KARAN MAHAJAN
The Association of Small Bombs

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 192 PAGES • 978-0-14-310603-6 • $17.00

The Association of Small Bombs is a novel in stories that follows a group of Indian-American children in the 1980s and 1990s as they grow up and come of age in the United States, grappling with the weight of history and the complexity of identity. The novel explores themes of love, loss, war, and the ways in which we come to understand ourselves and each other.

The Travels of Marco Polo

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 384 PAGES • 978-0-14-044970-9 • $17.00

In this account of his travels, Marco Polo describes his adventures in the East, from the city of Venice in Italy to the bustling markets of Persia and beyond. His vivid descriptions of the cultures and customs he encountered are supplemented by his own personal observations and reflections. The Travels is a classic of European literature and a source of inspiration for countless later works.

JOHN DAVISON ROCKWELL
A Long Walk to Water

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 296 PAGES • 978-0-14-124327-9 • $17.00

A Long Walk to Water is a memoir by John David Rockefeller IV, the great-grandson of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and the son of David Rockefeller. The book tells the story of John’s journey to Sudan, where he was born and raised, and his subsequent return to the country to help refugees and to promote understanding between cultures.

JOSEPH CONRAD
Heart of Darkness
TRANSLATED WITH AN INTRODUCTION BY RICHARD MUNSON
PENGUIN CLASSICS PAPERBACK • 160 PAGES • 978-0-14-312294-4 • $16.00

In Heart of Darkness, Conrad’s novel about the European exploration of Africa, the protagonist, Marlow, is sent to negotiate with a man named Kurtz, who has vanished into the jungle. The story explores themes of power, ambition, and the dangers of the unknown.

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 288 PAGES • 978-0-14-312291-3 • $16.00

The Cartel is a novel by Mohsen Hamedy, an Iranian-American writer, that tells the story of a group of influential figures in the Mexican drug trade. The novel explores themes of power, corruption, and the impact of the drug trade on society.

NATSUME SOKI
Kokoro
TRANSLATED WITH AN INTRODUCTION AND NOTES BY RICHARD MUNSON
PENGUIN CLASSICS PAPERBACK • 160 PAGES • 978-0-14-312294-4 • $16.00

Kokoro is a novel by Japanese writer Natsume Sōseki, that tells the story of a young man named Shūji who is sent to work for his uncle. The novel explores themes of love, family, and the pressures of societal expectations.

JONATHAN D. SPENCE
The Death of Woman Wang

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 208 PAGES • 978-0-14-124327-9 • $17.00

The Death of Woman Wang is a novel by American writer Jonathan D. Spence, that tells the story of a Chinese woman named Wang who is sent to work in a brothel. The novel explores themes of power, gender, and the impact of imperialism on Chinese society.

AUGUST SUD SYI
Freedom From Fear

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 256 PAGES • 978-0-14-312291-3 • $16.00

Freedom From Fear is a novel by August Sud Syi, a Pakistani-American writer, that tells the story of a young man named Malik who is sent to work for his uncle in a rural village.

BOYAL TYLEE, translator

The Talis of the Haka

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 304 PAGES • 978-0-14-312291-3 • $16.00

The Talis of the Haka is a novel by Indonesian writer Boyal Tylee, that tells the story of a young man named Malik who is sent to work for his uncle in a rural village. The novel explores themes of power, gender, and the impact of imperialism on Indonesian society.

KRAMER VOLLER
New Titles

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 400 PAGES • 978-0-14-312838-0 • $17.00

Patrick Park

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 304 PAGES • 978-0-14-312291-3 • $16.00

Patrick Park is an American writer who has published several works of fiction. His novel A Hotel at the Edge of the World was a New York Times Best Seller and received critical acclaim. Park’s writing often explores themes of identity, belonging, and the complexities of family and community.

PATRICIA PARK
Re Jane

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 304 PAGES • 978-0-14-312291-3 • $16.00

Re Jane is a novel by American writer Patricia Park, that tells the story of a young woman named Jane who is sent to work in a factory in South Korea. The novel explores themes of gender, power, and the impact of globalization on society.

KRYSS LEE
Hong Kong: A Novel

RIVERHEAD PAPERBACK • 256 PAGES • 978-0-14-119210-9 • $16.00

Hong Kong: A Novel is a novel by Hong Kong-born author Kryss Lee, that tells the story of a young man named Yung who is sent to work in a factory in Guangzhou, China. The novel explores themes of identity, belonging, and the complexities of family and community.

TERUHI MOON KINNEY
A North Korean Girl’s Journey to Freedom

PLUME PAPERBACK • 336 PAGES • 978-0-14-044970-9 • $17.00

A North Korean Girl’s Journey to Freedom is a memoir by North Korean defector Teruhimoon Kinney, that tells the story of her escape from North Korea. The memoir explores themes of power, gender, and the impact of imperialism on North Korean society.
NEW TITLES • ASIAN STUDIES

MARCO POLO

The Travels

Confucius

MO YAN

The Death of Woman Wang

BLAINE HARDEN

The Great Leader and the Fighter Pilot

MOSHIN HAMID

Rich in Rising Asia

KANG AND CHAM

Essays in Indian Fungiology

QU YUAN

The Real Story of Ah-Q

CONFUCIUS

TRANSLATED WITH AN INTRODUCTION AND NOTES BY NIGEL CLIFF

MO YAN

TRANSLATED BY VINCENT O'BRIEN

TENZIN CHOSHEL

The Life of the Buddha

DUDU RAY

Rich in Rising Asia

KANG AND CHAM

Essays in Indian Fungiology

QU YUAN

The Real Story of Ah-Q

CONFUCIUS

TRANSLATED WITH AN INTRODUCTION AND NOTES BY NIGEL CLIFF

MO YAN

TRANSLATED BY VINCENT O’BRIEN

TENZIN CHOSHEL

The Life of the Buddha

DUDU RAY

Rich in Rising Asia

KANG AND CHAM

Essays in Indian Fungiology

QU YUAN

The Real Story of Ah-Q
KARAN MAHAJAN
The Association of Small Bombs
The frequently used tone of a small bomb dots off a writer’s market in a corner of North Delhi. Las changed numbers, results of self-extrication, and circumstances that actually make us feel alive, and are able to self-actualize, precisely gain ground. —Adam Johnson, author of The Clarkesville Box
2015 National Book Award Finalist

MO YAN
TRANSLATED BY GORDON GILBREATH

Red Sorghum
The first novel of Nobel prize-winning Chinese author Mo Yan—a vivid, caustic, and poetic tale of China during the era of Chairman Mao—will be changed from flask poems to the current version.

JANICE Y. K. LEE
The Expatriate
In her long-awaited new novel, Lee—a Hong Kong-native of Korean descent—explores the quest for self-acceptance, the search for love, and the struggle to find a balance between two cultures. From Korean-American debut novelist Patricia Park explores the quest for self-acceptance, and love, culture and conscience, even the hardships of immigration. “—Adam Johnson, author of The Clarkesville Box
2016 National Book Award Finalist

PATRICIA PARK
Re Jane
In her long-awaited new novel, Lee—a Hong Kong-native of Korean descent—explores the quest for self-acceptance, the search for love, and the struggle to find a balance between two cultures. From Korean-American debut novelist Patricia Park explores the quest for self-acceptance, and love, culture and conscience, even the hardships of immigration. “—Adam Johnson, author of The Clarkesville Box
2016 National Book Award Finalist

MARCO POLO
The Travels
Based on original medieval sources and compiled with a lively introduction, maps, and notes. Includes an annotated English translation of Marco Polo’s original account, plus detailed modern contextual and explanatory notes to help readers understand the world of the thirteenth century. A highly readable and essential guide for students of history, economics, and culture.

BLAINE HARDEE
The Great Leader and the Fighter Pilot
A fascinating study of the intertwined stories of Kim Il Sung and MiG fighter pilot No Kum Sok. In North Korea, the 2012 memoirs of MiG-21 pilot No Kum Sok gave readers a rare glimpse into the life of one of the most powerful men in the world. In North Korea, the 2012 memoirs of MiG-21 pilot No Kum Sok gave readers a rare glimpse into the life of one of the most powerful men in the world. In North Korea, the 2012 memoirs of MiG-21 pilot No Kum Sok gave readers a rare glimpse into the life of one of the most powerful men in the world.

MOHIN HAMID
Discontent and Its Civilizations
A superb, thoughtful new exploration of how the ideas of enlightenment, nationalism, and modernity have shaped the course of human events. This collection, which features Hamid’s most recent work alongside his long history of writing on politics, culture, and history, offers a vivid and accessible examination of the ways in which modernity has shaped the world we live in today.

MA JIAN
The Dark Road
Escape from Camp 14
This is the true story of a young fighter pilot who dared to defy his Great Leader. From Korean-American debut novelist Patricia Park explores the quest for self-acceptance, and love, culture and conscience, even the hardships of immigration. “—Adam Johnson, author of The Clarkesville Box
2016 National Book Award Finalist

MO YAN
Red Sorghum
The first novel of Nobel prize-winning Chinese author Mo Yan—a vivid, caustic, and poetic tale of China during the era of Chairman Mao—will be changed from flask poems to the current version.

YEONMI PARK WITH MARYANNE VOLLERS
In Order To Live
In a story about the endurance of human spirit and the power of love, Park recounts her childhood in North Korea, her escape to the South, her resettlement in America, and her struggle to find a balance between two cultures. The first novel of Nobel prize-winning Chinese author Mo Yan—a vivid, caustic, and poetic tale of China during the era of Chairman Mao—will be changed from flask poems to the current version.

BLAINE HARDEE
The Great Leader and the Fighter Pilot
A fascinating study of the intertwined stories of Kim Il Sung and MiG fighter pilot No Kum Sok. In North Korea, the 2012 memoirs of MiG-21 pilot No Kum Sok gave readers a rare glimpse into the life of one of the most powerful men in the world. In North Korea, the 2012 memoirs of MiG-21 pilot No Kum Sok gave readers a rare glimpse into the life of one of the most powerful men in the world. In North Korea, the 2012 memoirs of MiG-21 pilot No Kum Sok gave readers a rare glimpse into the life of one of the most powerful men in the world.

MOHIN HAMID
Discontent and Its Civilizations
A superb, thoughtful new exploration of how the ideas of enlightenment, nationalism, and modernity have shaped the course of human events. This collection, which features Hamid’s most recent work alongside his long history of writing on politics, culture, and history, offers a vivid and accessible examination of the ways in which modernity has shaped the world we live in today.

MA JIAN
The Dark Road
Escape from Camp 14
This is the true story of a young fighter pilot who dared to defy his Great Leader. From Korean-American debut novelist Patricia Park explores the quest for self-acceptance, and love, culture and conscience, even the hardships of immigration. “—Adam Johnson, author of The Clarkesville Box
2016 National Book Award Finalist

MO YAN
Red Sorghum
The first novel of Nobel prize-winning Chinese author Mo Yan—a vivid, caustic, and poetic tale of China during the era of Chairman Mao—will be changed from flask poems to the current version.

YEONMI PARK WITH MARYANNE VOLLERS
In Order To Live
In a story about the endurance of human spirit and the power of love, Park recounts her childhood in North Korea, her escape to the South, her resettlement in America, and her struggle to find a balance between two cultures. The first novel of Nobel prize-winning Chinese author Mo Yan—a vivid, caustic, and poetic tale of China during the era of Chairman Mao—will be changed from flask poems to the current version.

BLAINE HARDEE
The Great Leader and the Fighter Pilot
A fascinating study of the intertwined stories of Kim Il Sung and MiG fighter pilot No Kum Sok. In North Korea, the 2012 memoirs of MiG-21 pilot No Kum Sok gave readers a rare glimpse into the life of one of the most powerful men in the world. In North Korea, the 2012 memoirs of MiG-21 pilot No Kum Sok gave readers a rare glimpse into the life of one of the most powerful men in the world. In North Korea, the 2012 memoirs of MiG-21 pilot No Kum Sok gave readers a rare glimpse into the life of one of the most powerful men in the world.

MOHIN HAMID
Discontent and Its Civilizations
A superb, thoughtful new exploration of how the ideas of enlightenment, nationalism, and modernity have shaped the course of human events. This collection, which features Hamid’s most recent work alongside his long history of writing on politics, culture, and history, offers a vivid and accessible examination of the ways in which modernity has shaped the world we live in today.

MA JIAN
The Dark Road
Escape from Camp 14
This is the true story of a young fighter pilot who dared to defy his Great Leader. From Korean-American debut novelist Patricia Park explores the quest for self-acceptance, and love, culture and conscience, even the hardships of immigration. “—Adam Johnson, author of The Clarkesville Box
2016 National Book Award Finalist

MO YAN
Red Sorghum
The first novel of Nobel prize-winning Chinese author Mo Yan—a vivid, caustic, and poetic tale of China during the era of Chairman Mao—will be changed from flask poems to the current version.

YEONMI PARK WITH MARYANNE VOLLERS
In Order To Live
In a story about the endurance of human spirit and the power of love, Park recounts her childhood in North Korea, her escape to the South, her resettlement in America, and her struggle to find a balance between two cultures. The first novel of Nobel prize-winning Chinese author Mo Yan—a vivid, caustic, and poetic tale of China during the era of Chairman Mao—will be changed from flask poems to the current version.

BLAINE HARDEE
The Great Leader and the Fighter Pilot
A fascinating study of the intertwined stories of Kim Il Sung and MiG fighter pilot No Kum Sok. In North Korea, the 2012 memoirs of MiG-21 pilot No Kum Sok gave readers a rare glimpse into the life of one of the most powerful men in the world. In North Korea, the 2012 memoirs of MiG-21 pilot No Kum Sok gave readers a rare glimpse into the life of one of the most powerful men in the world. In North Korea, the 2012 memoirs of MiG-21 pilot No Kum Sok gave readers a rare glimpse into the life of one of the most powerful men in the world.

MOHIN HAMID
Discontent and Its Civilizations
A superb, thoughtful new exploration of how the ideas of enlightenment, nationalism, and modernity have shaped the course of human events. This collection, which features Hamid’s most recent work alongside his long history of writing on politics, culture, and history, offers a vivid and accessible examination of the ways in which modernity has shaped the world we live in today.
KARAN MAHAJAN
The Association of Small Bombs
The powerful debut of a young author, this novel explores a series of unconnected bomb attacks in various locales, deftly weaving together the stories of the people involved. In this novel, the reader will experience the profound impact of the bombings on individuals and communities.

— Adam Johnson, author of The Orphan Master’s Son

2016 National Book Award Finalist

MO YAN
TRANSLATED BY JENNIFER CRUZ

Inside These Dark Materials
A vivid portrait of China’s technological advances and the impact they have on society, this novel by the Nobel laureate offers a glimpse into a future where the lines between human and machine are increasingly blurred.

2017 National Book Award Finalist

YTEOJI PARK
WITH MARYANNE VOLLLERS

The Expatriates
JANICE Y. K. LEE
PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 400 PAGES • 978-0-14-312838-0 • $17.00

“A fascinating cultural-political history…[Gives] a sense of how China and South Korea deepened their economic relationship and how that relationship is informing the country’s politics today.”— The New York Times

MO ZI
TRANSLATED WITH AN INTRODUCTION AND NOTES BY KURTIS R. SCHAEFFER

The Death of Woman Wang
MO YAN
TRANSLATED BY WINBORG CHAI

Escape from Camp 14
A harrowing tale of a young North Korean escapee’s journey through the world’s most isolated nation, this memoir offers a vivid window into the brutal reality of life in North Korea.

PENGUIN CLASSICS PAPERBACK • 432 PAGES

WENDELL CHAI
TRANSLATED WITH AN INTRODUCTION

Freedom From Fear
Edited with an introduction by Desmond M. Tutu

NATUWA GEBBE
Kolawo
TRANSLATED WITH AN INTRODUCTION AND NOTES BY MURITZ NEUBERG

Thirteen Hours of Faith and the Story of a Man Who Led His People Out of the Darkness

JONATHAN D. SPENCE
The Death of Woman Wang

Afüg Süntay
Free From Fear
From Tavush to America: The Story of a Turkic Woman

JOSEPH WINBERG CHAI
The Dark Road
TRANSLATED BY HOWARD GOLDBLATT

The Songs of the South
And Notes by Kurtis R. Schaeffer

TRANSLATED WITH AN INTRODUCTION

MO YAN
Red Simpson
TRANSLATED BY JENNIFER CRUZ

The Dark Road
A powerful exploration of China’s Cultural Revolution and the lasting impact it has had on the nation’s society and politics.

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 304 PAGES • 978-0-14-310802-3 • $17.00

CHANG-RAE LEE
978-0-14-119210-9 • $16.00

Riverhead Paperback • 384 Pages

TRANSLATION BY ANNPING CHIN

The Songs of the South

AND NOTES BY KURTIS R. SCHAEFFER

TRANSLATED WITH AN INTRODUCTION

978-0-14-310726-2 • $30.00

PENGUIN CLASSICS PAPERBACK • 784 PAGES

AND DESMOND M. TUTU
FOREWORD BY VACLAV HAVEL

The Death of Woman Wang

EDITED WITH AN INTRODUCTION

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 368 PAGES

TRANSLATED BY HOWARD GOLDBLATT

Freedom From Fear

978-0-14-016854-9 • $17.00

PENGUIN CLASSICS PAPERBACK • 784 PAGES

YNTHIJA M..'