KEN IGLUNAS
Trespassing Across America: One Man’s Epic, Non-Judgmental Tour Across the United States
In this account of one man’s journey across the contiguous 48 United States, Iglnas explores the moral and spiritual challenges of America’s identity crisis. He meets 52 Americans from every state and talks to them about the issues that divide the country.

DAVID OWEN
Where the Water Goes Life and Death Along the Colorado River
Renowned reporter Owen illuminates the modern Middle East through the stories of water, one of the most crucial natural resources on Earth. From the U.S.-Mexico border to the Chinese border, Owen delves into the complex political and environmental issues surrounding water in the Middle East.

SUSAN SOUTHDARK
Nagasaki: A Dominican Boy’s Odyssey from a Homeless Shelter to the Ivy League
This account of one man’s journey along the proposed Keystone XL route explores difficult issues, but to inspire them to tell lively stories that captivate the imagination, inform and engage them in their work.

SHERRY TURKLE
The Power of Talk in a Digital Age
This collection of essays explores the power of conversation, its fragility at present, the consequences of its loss, and our need to engage once again in the art of talking.

DAN-EL PADDILLA PERALTA
Undocumented A Dominican-Boy’s Odyssey from a Homeless Shelter to the Ivy League
Peralta’s book tells the story of his journey from a homeless shelter to Harvard University, where he became the first undocumented student to graduate from the Harvard College class of 2006. His book is a powerful testament to the American Dream.
