NEW TITLES • LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES

ROBERTO SAVIANO
TRANSLATED BY DANNY CHEN
In this in-depth investigation of international cocaine trafficking, Saviano tracks the drug from its source through its packaging and distribution, detailing the power of the drug cartels and gangs behind the illegal trade and their connivance across the globe.

"By combining stories of the anonymous working on the cocaine trade, this book makes a powerful case to a new approach. —The Economist"
PENGUIN PRESS • FEBRUARY 2017 • 978-0-14-310964-6 • $30.00

DAN-EL PADILLA PERALTA
Undocumented
A Dominican Boy's Odyssey from a Homeless Shelter to the Ivy League
IN SPANISH. TRANSLATED BY VIRGINIA JEWISS
The New York Times Book Review
"In this in-depth investigation of international cocaine trafficking, Saviano tracks the drug from its source through its packaging and distribution, detailing the power of the drug cartels and gangs behind the illegal trade and their connivance across the globe.

"By combining stories of the anonymous working on the cocaine trade, this book makes a powerful case to a new approach. —The Economist"
PENGUIN PRESS • FEBRUARY 2017 • 978-0-14-310964-6 • $30.00

BRYAN BURROUGH
Days of Rage: America's Radical Underground, the FBI, and the Forgotten Age of Revolutionary Violence
A consequence of the 1960s long before both the FBI and the American underground movement of the 1970s, including the Weathermen, the Black Liberation Army, and the FALN.
"[T]akes us from a fresh perspective on the historic events of the era. —Dan Rather"
PENGUIN PRESS • FEBRUARY 2017 • 978-0-14-310956-7 • $30.00

JORGE RAMOS
Take a Stand: Lessons from Rebels
The Emmy Award-winning journalist looks back on his groundbreaking interviews with titans, dictators, and policymakers, Ramos shares never-before-told stories and reveals the titans’ personal lives.
"Cuts through the noise to get to the truth….A splendid introduction to the early, dark brilliance of Vásquez's writing. —The Miami Herald"
PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 128 PAGES • 978-0-14-310919-8 • $15.00

GARRY WILLS
The Future of the Catholic Church with Pope Francis
The prizewinning historian examines changes that have taken place in the Church during Pope Francis’ tenure and provides a new account of Francis’s willingness to embrace change.
"Lovers on All Saints’ Day
In these seven stories, the author of In the Skin of A Cat and the collection its powerful sense of coherence and unity….A testimony to the early, dark brilliance of Vásquez's writing. —The Miami Herald"
PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 128 PAGES • 978-0-14-310919-8 • $15.00

JUAN GABRIEL VÁSQUEZ
The Sound of Things Falling
From the award-winning author of Sovereignty and the Forgotten Age of Revolutionary Violence
"A live exercise in church history....[For] anyone...curious to learn how one of our foremost historians and public intellectuals understands his faith. —The New York Times
"In this in-depth investigation of international cocaine trafficking, Saviano tracks the drug from its source through its packaging and distribution, detailing the power of the drug cartels and gangs behind the illegal trade and their connivance across the globe.

"By combining stories of the anonymous working on the cocaine trade, this book makes a powerful case to a new approach. —The Economist"
PENGUIN PRESS • FEBRUARY 2017 • 978-0-14-310964-6 • $30.00

JUAN GABRIEL VÁSQUEZ
Days of Passion, Days of Rage
In this in-depth investigation of international cocaine trafficking, Saviano tracks the drug from its source through its packaging and distribution, detailing the power of the drug cartels and gangs behind the illegal trade and their connivance across the globe.

"By combining stories of the anonymous working on the cocaine trade, this book makes a powerful case to a new approach. —The Economist"
PENGUIN PRESS • FEBRUARY 2017 • 978-0-14-310964-6 • $30.00

ALEJANDRO ZAMBRÁ
Multiple Choice
TRANSLATED BY RAYMOND CARPENTER
The celebrated Uruguayan author presents a bold new reading experience, a novel written in the form of a multiple-choice test.
PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 128 PAGES • 978-0-14-310970-4 • $15.00

ALVÁRD ENRIQUE
Sudden Death
The New Yorker
"A tale about a 16th-century clash of empires and ideas, told through a tennis match between Italian artist Caravaggio and Spanish poet Quevedo.
"[Vásquez’s] prose is rich in detail and sparkles with poetic lushness, as well as echoing the varied body of work. —The Economist"
PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 128 PAGES • 978-0-14-310970-4 • $15.00

WWW.PENGUIN.COM/FACINFO
For assistance in selecting titles for your courses, sign up for

ECH OFFICE
1745 F STREET NW, WASHINGTON, DC 20006-3457
WWW.PENGUIN.COM/FACINFO
For assistance in selecting titles for your courses, sign up for
The prizewinning historian examines changes that have taken place in the Church during the last century, highlighting the challenge it currently faces, and discusses the first Latin American pope’s willingness to embrace change.

ROBERTO SAVIANO

ZeroZeroZero: A Dominican Boy’s Odyssey from a Homeless Shelter to the Ivy League

A Dominican boy’s ODyssey from a homeless shelter to the Ivy League is a poignant thread that highlights the experiences of immigration reform, of a Dominican boy’s odyssey from a homeless shelter to the Ivy League, and of the challenges that make up the Dominican boy’s odyssey from a homeless shelter to the Ivy League.

JUAN GABRIEL VÁSQUEZ

Days of Rage: America’s Radical Underground, the FBI, and the Forgotten Age of Revolutionary Violence

"A pervading atmosphere of melancholy, mists, and rural isolation: it is this that gives the collection its powerful sense of coherence and unity....A testimony to the early, dark things we’ve forgotten, can come back to haunt us."—NPR

JUAN GABRIEL VÁSQUEZ

The Sound of Things Falling

Hours after an incident in which a police officer was shot during a traffic stop, the officer was pronounced dead at the hospital. The incident occurred in a neighborhood known for its high crime rate.

ALEJANDRO ZAMBRANA

Multiple Choice

The acclaimed Mexican writer’s first novel to be translated into English—a postmodern tale about a 16th-century clash of empires and ideas, told through a tennis match between the two empires.

ÁLVARO ENRIQUE

Sudden Death

"The New Yorker" review of the novel says, "Enrique delivers a tense and exciting read. 'A small book packed with meaning and space for interpretation. By structuring it as a test, the author can showcase the strengths of his characters to the hilt, and in so doing, force a reader to make sense of even the puzzling questions, he offers an alternative to the facile description of the political situation."

ALEXANDRA KASZNIK

The Sound of Things Falling

"The prizewinning historian examines changes that have taken place in the Church during the last century, highlighting the challenge it currently faces, and discusses the first Latin American pope’s willingness to embrace change."
NEW TITLES • LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES

ROBERTO SAVIANO
TRANSLATED BY ANNE MCLANE
The 'don't ask, don't tell' policy of international cocaine trafficking, Santos reveals the drug trade's cartels, dictators, and policymakers. Santos tells the story of this international cartels, and gangsters along with some stunning details across the globe.

"A captivating reader of the cocaine smuggling brutality for the crime trade, this book makes a powerful case for a new approach."—No\nFor complimentary examination copies and personalized assistance in selecting titles for your courses, sign up for www.penguin.com/academic

BRYAN BURROUGH
Days of Rage: America's Radical Underground, the FBI, and the Forgotten Age of Revolutionary Violence
An essential account of the FBI's long-standing battle with the SDS and the progressive revolutionary movements of the 1960s, including the Weathermen, the Lancashire Education Union, the Black Panther Party, and the SDS. This compelling account of a generation of political radicalism is also a definitive history of the FBI's war on the SDS in the 1960s, as told by the spies who were on the front lines.

JUAN GABRIEL VÁSQUEZ
Reputations
"Upstream" is the new novel by the award-winning Colombian author Juan Gabriel Vásquez. The novel is described as a "powerful, concentrated achievement. It makes clear that our memories, and even the things we've forgotten, can come back to haunt us.

"Juan Gabriel Vásquez has earned a place among the most admired and strikingly original writers of our time. His strikingly original writers of our time. His strikingly original writers of our time."—The Chicago Tribune

ALEJANDRO ZAMBRA
Multiple Choice
The celebrated Chilean author presents a bold new reading experience: a novel written in the form of a standardized test that invites the reader to respond to virtuoso language and vivid, surreal narratives. Zambra's groundbreaking novel challenges the nature of free will and its relation to the human condition.

GARRY WILLS
Sudden Death
JUAN GABRIEL VÁSQUEZ
The Sound of Things Falling
A powerful novel about a legendary political cartoonist that examines the weight of the past, how public persona intersects with private history, and the burdens and surprises of memory.

JUAN GABRIEL VÁSQUEZ
"Vásquez is a penetrating force and the most pressing Colombian writer today….is a powerful, concentrated achievement. It makes clear that our memories, and even the things we've forgotten, can come back to haunt us."

"By reminding readers of the senseless suffering wrought by the cocaine trade, this book makes a powerful case for a new approach."

PENGUIN PAPERBACK • 448 PAGES • 978-0-14-310937-2 • $18.00

NEW TITLES • LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES

KELLY KERNIE

Hard Red Spring

During the lead-up to American independence, the novel describes 17-year-old Guatemalan-american history by exploring five American success stories labeled the “hard red spring.” Each of these is based on a historical figure and their contribution to American independence. The book is a blend of historical fiction and non-fiction, with a focus on the struggle for freedom and independence.

MARLON JAMES

A Brief History of Seven Killings

First published in Jamaica, this novel explores the complex relationships between truth and power in the region. The story follows a detective investigating the murder of a young man, uncovering a web of corruption and violence that connects back to his own past.

ALEXANDRE VIDAL PORTO

Sergio Y. The Last of the Sinners

Sergio is a young man who dreams of becoming a painter. However, his life is turned upside down when he is wrongfully accused of murder and sent to prison. His wife is brutally killed in the process, leaving him devastated and alone.

RaphaelMontes

Blood-Drenched Beard

This novel tells the story of a young man named Juan, who is drawn into a web of crime and violence. As he navigates the dangerous world of drug cartels and gang warfare, he must confront his own inner demons and survive to tell the tale.

INGRID BETANCOURT

The Blue Line

This novel follows the life of a young woman named Ana, who is torn between her love for a revolutionary and her desire for a normal life. As she navigates the dangerous world of guerrilla warfare, she must decide between her passion and her survival.

NEW TITLES • LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES

SANTIAGO GAMBOA

Night Prayers

This novel is the story of a young man named Carlos, who is torn between his love for his girlfriend and his desire to join the revolutionary movement. As he is forced to make a difficult choice, he must confront his own inner demons and decide what he is truly willing to sacrifice.

RAÚL SÁEZ

Fever Dream

This novel is set in a world where the line between reality and dreams is blurred. The story follows a young woman named Laurel, who is drawn into a dangerous web of magic and mystery, as she tries to uncover the truth about her own past.

SAMANTHA SCHWEBLIN

Captured by the Sand

This novel is the story of a young woman named Lina, who is kidnapped and held prisoner by a group of dangerous criminals. As she struggles to survive and escape, she must confront her own fears and the darkness within herself.

GIAAM COOMBS

Let There Be Light

This novel is set in a world where the line between life and death is blurred. The story follows a young woman named Sarah, who is torn between her love for her husband and her desire to fight for justice. As she is forced to make a difficult choice, she must confront her own inner demons and decide what she is truly willing to sacrifice.

NEW TITLES • LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES

DAN KOOPPEL

Barnacle

This novel is set in a world where the line between reality and dreams is blurred. The story follows a young woman named Emma, who is drawn into a dangerous web of magic and mystery, as she tries to uncover the truth about her own past.

EDWIN WILLIAMSON

The Penguin History of Latin America

This book provides a comprehensive overview of the history of Latin America, from pre-Columbian times to the present day. It is written in an engaging and accessible style, and is perfect for students or anyone interested in the history of the region.
KELLY KERNEY

Hard Red Spring

In the thick of America’s immigration controversy, the novel depicts a divided year of Oklahoman mexican-labors, experienced by four American citizens lured by the dream of a better life. The author, who is an immigrant herself, offers an intimate look at the struggles and triumphs of individuals who seek a new beginning in the land of opportunity.

SANTIAGO GAMBOA

Night Prayers

In the vein of Roberto Bolaño and Gabriel García Márquez, a story about the tragic history of Latin America. The novel follows the life of a young man who is caught up in the dangers of drug trafficking and the violence that plagues his country. As he navigates the treacherous world of crime, he begins to see the futility of his actions and the destructive impact they have on those around him.

MARLON JAMES

A Brief History of Seven Killings

In this masterful debut novel, the author takes readers on a gripping journey through the violent history of Jamaica. The story follows a private investigator who must solve a string of murders that seem to be linked to the nation’s turbulent past. Through his investigations, the investigator uncovers secrets and lies that threaten to tear apart the fabric of society.

ALEXANDRE VIDAL PORTO

Sergio Y.

A moving story about gender, identity, and the search for happiness, this inspirational work explores the complex world of contemporary Latin American life. As Sergio navigates the challenges of his journey, he discovers the power of love and the strength of the human spirit.

Sergio Y., translated by Megan M. Dowell

DANIEL GALERA

Blood-Drenched Beard

A psychological thriller in the vein of Roberto Bolaño and Gabriel García Márquez, this novel follows a man who becomes entangled in a dangerous web of intrigue and conspiracy. As he delves deeper into the mystery, he realizes that everything is not as it seems and that the truth is shrouded in the shadows.

JUAN GONZALEZ

The Penguin History of Latin America

A comprehensive overview of Latin America’s history, this book covers the region’s rich and complex past from pre-Columbian times to the present day. Through a wealth of information and analysis, the author provides readers with a deeper understanding of the region’s struggles and achievements.

EDWIN WILLIAMSON

The Biography of a Cause

A vivid and engrossing account of the life of a legendary Latin American writer, this book captures the spirit and passion of one of the region’s most influential figures. Through her life story, readers gain insight into the region’s rich cultural and political history.

SAMANTA SCHWEBLIN

The Blue Betancourt

In this masterful novel, the author explores the complexities of family and identity in the context of a society on the brink of disaster. Through her characters’ experiences, the author sheds light on the timeless struggles of love, loss, and the search for meaning.

CELEBRA

Captains of the Sands

An evocative and poetic story, this novel follows a young man as he navigates the challenges of life in a small coastal village. Through his journey, the author imparts a sense of the beauty and resilience of the human spirit.

SAMANTHA SCHWEBLIN

Even Silence Has an End

In this haunting novel, the author explores the themes of identity, memory, and the afterlife. Through her characters’ experiences, the author delves into the mysteries of the human mind and the power of storytelling.

RAY SUAREZ

Venezuelans

In this insightful exploration of Venezuela’s recent history, the author provides readers with a comprehensive understanding of the country’s political and social dynamics. Through interviews with leading figures from all walks of life, the author paints a vivid picture of Venezuela’s past and present.

DAN KOEPPEL

Los Gringos

An exploration of the complexities of race and identity in the United States, this book offers readers a provocative and thought-provoking look at the nation’s cultural landscape. Through her characters’ experiences, the author imparts a sense of the challenges and opportunities that await those who seek to navigate the nation’s diverse and vibrant society.