NEW TITLES • AMERICAN HISTORY

NANCY ISENBERG
White Trash: The 400-Year Unruly History of Class in America
"Feeling…disquiet…explains the contours of social and political, historical and cultural divides…in the way that the history of sex and sexuality explains everything…It is a magisterial study of the ordinary neglect andvere the reader help to compose the American identity in peculiar fashion…It is breathtaking visual literacy and disarming publ ination as it should be."—Michael Eric Dyson, Georgetown University
Penguin Paperback • 408 pages • 978-0-14-312827-8 • $18.00

BLANCHE WIESEN COOK
Eleanor Roosevelt
The War Years and After, 1939-1962, Volume 3
"One of the best analyses of Eleanor’s important and influential life…Cook narrates the epic story of the war years…The New York Times Book Review
Penguin Paperback • 608 pages • 978-0-14-312178-7 • $20.00 • December 2017

SUSAN QUINN
Eleanor and Hick: The Love Affair That Shaped a First Lady
An account of the love between Eleanor Roosevelt and Lorena Hickok, which transformed and --- empowered both women to play significant roles in a tumultuous time in American history.

ADAM COHEN
Imbeciles: The Supreme Court, American Eugenics, and the Sterilization of Carrie Buck
"The story of an assault upon thousands of defenseless people seen through the lens of ---
and the Sterilization of Carrie Buck

ROBERT DALLEK
Franklin D. Roosevelt: A Political Life
A powerfully moving and vital story that could not have been told in its day, and alters radi empowered both women to play significant roles in a tumultuous time in American history.

STEVEN HAHN
The United States and Its World in an Age of Civil Wars, 1830-1910
In the latest volume in the Penguin History of the United States series, Pulitzer-Pr

ADAM COHEN
Imbeciles: The Supreme Court, American Eugenics, and the Sterilization of Carrie Buck
"The story of an assault upon thousands of defenseless people seen through the lens of ---
and the Sterilization of Carrie Buck

ROBERT DALLEK
Franklin D. Roosevelt: A Political Life
A powerfully moving and vital story that could not have been told in its day, and alters radi empowered both women to play significant roles in a tumultuous time in American history.

STEVEN HAHN
The United States and Its World in an Age of Civil Wars, 1830-1910
In the latest volume in the Penguin History of the United States series, Pulitzer-Pr

ADAM COHEN
Imbeciles: The Supreme Court, American Eugenics, and the Sterilization of Carrie Buck
"The story of an assault upon thousands of defenseless people seen through the lens of ---
and the Sterilization of Carrie Buck

ROBERT DALLEK
Franklin D. Roosevelt: A Political Life
A powerfully moving and vital story that could not have been told in its day, and alters radi empowered both women to play significant roles in a tumultuous time in American history.

STEVEN HAHN
The United States and Its World in an Age of Civil Wars, 1830-1910
In the latest volume in the Penguin History of the United States series, Pulitzer-Pr
NEW TITLES  •  AMERICAN HISTORY

NANCY ISENBERT
White Trash: The 400-Year Untold History of Class in America
"Pulitzer–prizewinning history "One of the most influential and controversial books on American history ever written. . . ." —New York Times Book Review
Penguin Paperback • 368 pages • 978-0-14-311071-2 • $18.00

ADAM COHEN
Imbeciles: A/fixtures, Autobiography, and the Inheritance of Caste
In a sweeping and dramatic portrait of one of American history’s most influential figures, Cohen reveals the legacy of American immigration policy that shaped the nation. With impressive scholarship and devastating insight, Imbeciles is a must-read for anyone interested in the history of race and class in America.
Penguin Paperback • 608 pages • 978-0-14-312967-7 • $17.00

BLANCHE WIESEN COOK
Eleanor Roosevelt
The Love Affair That Shaped a First Lady
"A magisterial study of the unjustly neglected poor whites who have helped to compose the American identity in crucial fashion....This is breathtaking cultural analysis at its best. "—Michael Eric Dyson, Georgetown University
Penguin Paperback • 608 pages • 978-0-14-310962-4 • $20.00

A Nation Without Borders
The United States and Its World in an Age of Civil Wars, 1830–1910
In the latest volume in the Penguin History of the United States series, Pulitzer–prizewinning historian Gordon S. Wood offers a sweeping and dramatic portrait of the eight decades surrounding the Civil War and leading into the twentieth century. From race to labor troubles to world power—themes often operating in tandem—A Nation Without Borders provides a provocative historical portrait while testing common assumptions about an American icon.
Penguin Paperback • 608 pages • 978-0-14-312178-7 • $20.00 • December 2017

Friends Divided: John Adams and Thomas Jefferson
From the Pulitzer–prizewinning biographer of Alexander Hamilton, a gripping and dramatic portrait of one of American history’s most influential figures. In a searing and dramatic portrait of two of America’s most influential figures, Gordon S. Wood tells the story of their famous falling out—based on an unprecedented account of the correspondence between them. Friends Divided is the definitive biography of this most famous of rivalries.
Penguin Paperback • 512 pages • 978-0-7352-2471-1 • $35.00

NEW TITLES  •  AMERICAN HISTORY

EMIL-BEILIS
The Supreme Court, American Eugenics, and the Stigmatization of cute
Anna Cohen
"The story of an unusual group of defenders of people who were the losers of a young, dynamic, centrist book. Raw, unflinching in its scope and depth, this is an essential account of the United States Supreme Court’s most controversial case. . . ." —The New York Times Book Review
Penguin Paperback • 352 pages • 978-0-14-311072-9 • $17.00

STEVEN HAHN
A Nation Without Borders
The United States and Its World in an Age of Civil Wars, 1830–1910
In the latest volume in the Penguin History of the United States series, Pulitzer–prizewinning historian Gordon S. Wood offers a sweeping and dramatic portrait of the eight decades surrounding the Civil War and leading into the twentieth century. From race to labor troubles to world power—themes often operating in tandem—A Nation Without Borders provides a provocative historical portrait while testing common assumptions about an American icon.
Penguin Paperback • 608 pages • 978-0-14-312178-7 • $20.00 • December 2017

ELIZABETH BROWN PRYOR
Six Encounters with Lincoln
A President Confronts Democracy in His Own Words....A must read. "—Sven Beckert, Harvard University, author of
Penguin Paperback • 272 pages • 978-0-14-313428-7 • $17.00

RON CHERNOW
Grant
Pulitzer Prize–winning Ron Chernow returns with a sweeping and dramatic portrait of one of America’s most influential figures, Ulysses S. Grant. Grant captures the American spirit and the American era with the same engaging and dramatic narrative style that has made Chernow such a master of this particular era. Grant is a must-read for all who are interested in the history of the American West, Civil War, and Reconstruction.
Penguin Hardcover • 1152 pages • 978-0-14-312667-9 • $40.00

ANDREW CARROLL
My Fellow Soldiers: General John Pemberton and the Southern Army That Held the Grant Line
"Pemberton’s long-lost memoirs and letters to friends and family give an incredibly vivid account of the American experience in the Civil War. . . . His ground-breaking historical narrative in his forever–lost memoirs. . . . " —The New York Times Book Review
Penguin Paperback • 352 pages • 978-0-14-311072-9 • $17.00
NANCY MacLEAN

Democracy in Chains

The Deep History of the Radical Right's Stealth Plan for America

For most of the 20th century, American democracy seemed to be advancing—both here at home and abroad. But a subversive counterrevolution has been quietly and steadily undermining that advance.

While most Americans take democracy for granted, MacLean’s startling exposé reveals how the radical right, acting through invisible chains, is quietly and efficiently dismantling our democracy.

Order online: www.penguin.com/examcopyorder

Penguin Press Hardcover • 536 pages • 978-0-399-57308-0 • $27.00

DAVA SOBEL

The Glass Universe: How the Ladies of the Harvard Obs...
NANCY MacLEAN

Democracy in Chains: The Deep History of the Radical Right’s Stealth Plan for America

MacLean explores the long concealed history of the political economic right, developed the ideas that underlie the politics of the 2016 election, and offers a roadmap for resisting the coming attacks on democracy. The radical right’s ideas about who should control the economy and how to govern aren’t new; they date back three centuries, to the early modern period. This group of intellectuals and entrepreneurs, MacLean argues, may be our most accurate guide to how far we’ve slid away from our founding principles and how far we believe in government by the people—across the eras of Jacksonian democracy and the Civil War, through the rise of the modern Republican Party, and well into the twenty-first century. Whether you’re moving away from a book about history, you’ll enjoy this book. 2017

LAWRENCE D’OLEONNE

Playing with Fire: The Elusive Evolution and Transformation of American Politics

D’Oleonne’s insightful look at our most divisive issues and the political landscape Lawrence D’Oleonne argues that the political pendulum is swinging from left to right. In this book, D’Oleonne offers new insights into the world of politics and provides a fresh perspective on the political landscape. This book is a must-read for anyone interested in American politics.

DAVA SOBEL

The Glass Universe: How the Ladies of the Harvard Observatories Discovered the Modern Sky

Sobel’s book is a fascinating exploration of the role played by women in the early years of the modern observatory. It is a must-read for anyone interested in astronomy and the history of science.

RANDALL FULLER

The Book That Changed America: A Narrative Theory of Ignition to a Nation

This book is a must-read for anyone interested in the history of American literature and the role of the book in shaping American society. Fuller’s narrative is engaging and informative, providing a unique perspective on the evolution of American literature.

DAN ZAK

Almighty

Zak’s book is a must-read for anyone interested in the history of the modern American presidency and the role of the president in shaping American society. His narrative is engaging and informative, providing a unique perspective on the evolution of the modern presidency.

DAVID L. HINNANT

The Potlikker Papers: A Food History of the Modern South

Hinnant’s book is a must-read for anyone interested in the history of the modern South and the role of food in shaping the region. His narrative is engaging and informative, providing a unique perspective on the evolution of the modern South.

JOHN T. EDGE

The Potlikker Papers: A Food History of the Modern South

Edge’s book is a must-read for anyone interested in the history of the modern South and the role of food in shaping the region. His narrative is engaging and informative, providing a unique perspective on the evolution of the modern South.

COLIN WOODARD

American Character: A History of the Epic Struggle Between Ocean and Continent

Woodard’s book is a must-read for anyone interested in the history of the United States and the role of the ocean in shaping the country. His narrative is engaging and informative, providing a unique perspective on the evolution of the United States.

Monday, July 22, 2017
NANCY MacLEAN

Democracy in Chains: The Deep History of the Radical Right’s Stealth Plan for America

In the early 1970s, libertarians and their funders were already working to set up today’s vast system of nonenforcement. They believed in a future that would sleep with its one foot in the air...a future in which the poor and illiterate would not have to mind the watchful gaze of government. But they were not content with their plan. They needed to make sure it was in place and all was in place before it was questioned by the people—better known as those descending upon Wall Street.

Meanwhile, here is a well-researched work that speaks to many significant issues. From one who needs to understand today’s unfathomable politics should read this important book now...—Alice Kandell, author of For Every Purpose

Skying Hardware • 368 PP. • 978-0-307-84631-5 • $28.00

LAWRENCE D. O’DONNELL

Playing with Fire

The 400-Year History of American Capitalism

This diverse collection comprises work from 49 writers arranged into sections of memoir, poetry, fiction, and nonfiction, including essays by Daron Acemoglu, The American Revolution, and The New York Times Book Review.

John T. Edge

The Potlikker Papers: A Food History of the Modern South

In this rich, compact history of the South through food and culture, Edge has created a wonderful and evocative portrait of the Southern experience. The result is a revelatory view of the South that will shape American history for years to come.

Penguin Press Hardcover • 368 PP. • 978-0-399-56313-3 • $18.00

DAVA SOBEL

The Glass Universe is the story of the women who contributed to the history of astronomy through their understanding of the wave theory of light and their contributions to the development of a new understanding of the universe.

In this rich, compact history of the South through food and culture, Edge has created a wonderful and evocative portrait of the Southern experience. The result is a revelatory view of the South that will shape American history for years to come.

Penguin Press Hardcover • 368 PP. • 978-0-399-56313-3 • $18.00

RANDALL FULLER

The Book That Changed America

The Tenets of the Theory of Evolution Ignite a Nation

Fuller’s book is an excellent companion to the other nonfiction works on Darwin and evolution. It’s also valuable to anyone interested in the history of science or the history of religious thought.

Penguin Press Hardcover • 384 PP. • 978-0-7352-2059-1 • $28.00

DAN ZAK

Almighty

George Washington’s Faith and Estate in the Early Republic

This is an important book that will be read by all those interested in the early history of the United States. It is a must-read for anyone who wants to understand the role of religion in American government.

Penguin Press Hardcover • 496 PP. • 978-0-399-56314-0 • $28.00

LOUIS THOMAS

Lafayette in the Somewhat Unfortunate Life of Mrs. Adams

This is an excellent book about the life of an extraordinary woman. It is a must-read for anyone who wants to understand the role of women in American history.

Penguin Press Hardcover • 512 PP. • 978-0-399-56315-7 • $30.00

The Portable Nineteenth-Century African American Writers

This is an important book that will be read by all those interested in the history of African American literature. It is a must-read for anyone who wants to understand the role of African Americans in American literature.

Penguin Press Hardcover • 576 PP. • 978-0-399-56379-9 • $30.00

Richard Kurin

The Smithsonian’s History of America in 101 Objects

This is an excellent book about the history of the United States. It is a must-read for anyone who wants to understand the role of objects in American history.

Penguin Press Hardcover • 448 PP. • 978-0-14-311000-2 • $17.00