Ngũgĩ Wa Thiong’o
THE RIVER BETWEEN
Introduction by Uzodinma Iweala
The 50th-anniversary edition of a legendary work of African literature, this moving and eye-opening novel lucidly captures the drama of a people and culture whose world has been overturned. During the early days of white settlement in Kenya, the Gikuyu people are faced with a choice between an alluring new religion and their own ancestral customs. “Beautifully compact... It takes its reader on a journey out of the colonial matrix and into the world of the real, showing us life reclaimed in all its complexity from the simplifying template of colonialism... It has an undeniable power.” — Uzodinma Iweala, from the Introduction. “Has the rare qualities of restraint, intelligence and sensitivity.” — The Times Literary Supplement.

Devil on the Cross
Introduction by Binyavanga Wainaina
Written in secret on toilet paper, while Ngũgĩ was in prison, this powerful fictional critique of capitalism tells the tragic story of Wariinga, a young woman who moves from a rural Kenyan town to the capital, Nairobi, only to be exploited by her boss and later by a corrupt businessman. As she struggles to survive, Wariinga begins to realize that her problems are only symptoms of a larger societal malaise and that much of the misfortune stems from the Western, capitalist influences on her country. An impassioned cry for a Kenya free of dictatorship and for African writers to work in their own local dialects, Devil on the Cross has had a profound influence on Africa and on post-colonial African literature. “One of our century’s great novels.” — Tribune.

117 Days
An Account of Confinement and Interrogation Under the South African 90-Day Detention Law
Introduction by Angela Y. Davis
An invaluable testimonial of the excesses of the apartheid system, 117 Days presents the chronicle of journalist First’s isolation and abuse at the hands of South African interrogators. Upon her arrest in 1963, she was detained in solitary confinement, under South Africa’s ninety-day detention law. Thus began a war of nerves between First and her Special Branch captors. “[Ruth First’s] life, and her death, remains a beacon to all who love liberty.”—Nelson Mandela.

Penguin Publishing Group offers course adoption assistance as near as your phone or computer. Over the past few years, the College Faculty Information Service has grown to cover a wide range of fine titles from all Penguin Publishing Group imprints in a continuing effort to offer personalized service to college professors and enhance information provided by our college reps in the field.

HOW THE SERVICE WORKS

Any assistant, associate, adjunct, or full professor who teaches in the United States and regularly adopts paperbacks is invited to join the College Faculty Information Service. Simply complete and return the questionnaire on the next page, and we'll send you catalogs relevant to your courses and ordering information. Thereafter, you can contact us anytime to discuss appropriate titles and free exam copy choices.

HOW THE PROGRAM WILL HELP YOU

Through CFIS, you’ll receive information on new and forthcoming books of interest to you and free exam copies for possible course adoption. Our representative will be glad to review Penguin’s extensive backlist—an invaluable aid in developing new courses, and answer any questions about our titles that you may have. We’re available to discuss not only current titles but your ideas on books that you’d like to see Penguin publish. We value your suggestions—they assist us in acquiring books that are most relevant to you as educators.

INTERESTED?

Look through this catalog and note the outstanding books and low prices that have made Penguin the first choice of educators. Then fill out the questionnaire and send it to us.

The questionnaire is also available on our website:

`penguin.com/facinfo`

It’s the first step to a collaborative process that will help you select the best books (at the best prices) for your courses.

The Penguin Publishing Group supplies one free desk copy for every 20 copies of an adopted text required by instructors at accredited colleges and universities. Penguin also honors desk copy requests for seminar and graduate courses with a minimum enrollment of 10 students. If you need more than 5 desk copies of a single title, please email your request directly to academic@penguin.com.

Please note: Penguin cannot ship desk copies to residences; desk copies must be mailed in care of your institution to valid U.S. addresses only.

To order:
Desk copies may be ordered online using the form provided. This ensures that your request is processed as quickly as possible and makes your order easier to track.
